Dear Ray:

I am well aware of your tremendous research efforts on the Howard Family. The more I ponder your relative, Mrs. Athla Tankersle's genealogical data, I think we relate through the Leach, Robinson. Sweets, Dunn's and other allied families of Illinois and Indiana. These families may relate to Eliakim Howard and [2] Margaret Truesdale. I connect through Alanson "Lant" Howard and Elizabeth Sweet. Eliakim and Alanson were sons of Sylvester Howard and wife Lyida Bosworth Sweet.

Sylvester and Alanson Howard were some of Illinois and Southeastern Nebraska's earliest Pioneer Families.

I quote from U.S. Treasury Department Claim Notification #179668, dated November 29, 1904, pertaining to Isaac Steele, as follows:

"In the case of Isaac Steele, private, Co. H, 3 Ind. Inf., and Pvt., Co. F, 70 Ind. Vols., a balance has been found due this office, and a certificate No. 8.429825 & 429826 dated Nov. 25, 1904' has been forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment, as follows: $42.14 to Francis J. Hart, (child), Anderson, Ind.; $7.02 to Sarah King, (grandchild), Morrisville, Ill.; $7.02 each to Perry Leach, and Susan Howard, (grandchildren), Louisville, Ill.; $7.02 to Martha Grotts, (grandchild), Alma, Ill.; $7.02 to Monroe Leach, 212 E. Martin St., Litchfield, Ill.; $14.04 each to Chas. W. Steele and Isaac C. Steele (grandchildren), all of Ohiowa, Nebr.; $10.53 to Isaac Stringer, (grandchild), Shelbyville, Ind.; $10.53 to Lydia Lawson, (grandchild), R.R. No. 8, Anderson, Ind.; $2.35 each to Alfred Lynch and Hattie Harkey, (great grandchildren), Irving, Ill.; $2.35 to Della Leach, (great grandchild), R. R. D. No. 1, Waggoner, Ill.; $21.07 to John W. German, (natural guardian of Ray Amos, Roscoe Amos & Mollie Amos, great grandchildren), Franklin, Ind.; $10.54 to Effie L. Perry, (guardian of John W. Stringer, Jessie O. Stringer & David G. Stringer, great grandchildren), Elwood, Ind....." 2

Further, I quote from the Louisville?, Clay County, Illinois, September 11?, 1928 newspaper, as follows:

"PUBLICATION NOTICE

State of Illinois, Clay County, ss. the November Term, A.D. 1928.

James W. Cogswell, Administrator of the Estate of Joel Robinson Howard, deceased vs. Malinda Jane Lynch. William Henry Howard, Ira Judson Howard, Lydia Janett Sharp, Edwin F. Howard, Margaret B. Mrs. Edna Barnes, is in search of the vital facts surrounding SILAS HOWARD born 1855 who married Besty Anne/Anna Carpenter. Their son Charles V. Howard married in Cass County, Nebraska, please see enclosed data. At least I have him narrowed down to either my Silas Howard or the New Hampshire Howards, unless you know something, I don't. My Howard's were in: Fairfield, Alexandria, Clay Center, Tobias, Valentine, and other regions.

Anyway, I am wondering if you would send me a copy of your pedigree. I hope to meet with you, when I travel to Des Moines, to meet with my Aunt, Esther Simpson Rash, Pual's wife. I am not certain, if travel will be allowed, due to a February 3rd, 1995, heart attack, due to complications from-on-set diabetes. The only other relative we know about was my great-uncle, Gilbert L. Howard, who died at age 44. He was married to Fanny Hays, of Southeastern Nebraska, mainly around Tobias or Tecumseh.

Dear Fran:

I am sorry that I have not written before this but I am just beginning to feel like myseLf agein. I was certainly glad to get all the material you sent. Thanks for returing all my sheets of Pedigree charts.

Richard Billies wrote me. I suppose he got my name thru your genealogy list. He wrote me that Pontius was a distant relative of his and sent me a pedigree chart of Peter Wooley II and his family which included Pontius with his birthdate. The same as the Peter Wooley on the page you sent me - marked page 5. Pontius was born 1763, my Lydia Valariah was born 1737, so Pontius could not have been her father. Marshall Howard always said Pontius was her father, she married Zephaniah Howard.

I just had a letter from Frank J. Doherty who wrote "The Settlers of the Beekman Patent" Dutchess Co., NY. He said he thought the Lydia Valariah who married Zephaniah Howard, was the daughter of Edward and Lydia ------- Wooley. Mr. Doherty is working with me on my Howard line.

I hope you keey in touch.

Sincerely,

Esther

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or

EDGAR DE LOS SWEET

SWEET

E.D.L. SWEET, general agent of the Guarantee Company of North America, was born in (Broome) New York in 1824 and came west to Illinois in the spring of 1830. His parents located at Jacksonville where he received his early education. In 1849 he began business life as a telegraph operator at Rushville, Illinois in the services of the Illinois and Mississippi Telegraph Company, and was appointed superintendent of that company in 1853, with headquarters 1st at Galena, and in 1856 at Chicago, remaining in that position until 1868, when the lines were leased to the Western Union Telegraph Company, and for a year continued in the employ of that company in some capacity, when he resigned, and during the year following accepted the position of general manager of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Company, with headquarters in New York City. In 1874 he was elected vice-president of the company, and retiring to Chicago in 1875, dissolved his connection with the company in January, 1876. From 1876 to 1881, Mr. SWEET managed a special system of wires conecting the principal Boards of Trade--in this country--with Chicago. In the latter part of 1881, he organized a Branch of Local Board of Directors of the Guarantee Company of North America, at Chicago, and became resident secretary and general agent of the company. Mr. SWEET was one of the corporate trustees of the Y.M.C.A. [Young Men´s Chrisitan Association] property, known as FARWELL Hall, for about 3 years, from April 1866 to 1869, and during a portion of that time secretary of the board. He has resided at Oak Park since May 1881.

THE HOWARD FAMILY

The Howard family arrived in Dutchess County around 1748 and remained through the end of the century and beyond. The emigrant was Edward Howard Effingham, born 1628 who married 7 March 1661 at Cambridge, Middlesex Co., MA, Esther Hannah Hawkins, born 20 Nov. 1640, dau. of Thomas and Hannah Hawkins of Boston, MA. He died after 1662, probably in England.

Children:
1. i. Matthew, b. 15 June 1662; m. Mary Case.

1. MATTHEW^2 HOWARD, (Edward^1), was born 15 June 1662 in Boston, MA and married ca. 1687/8 to Mary, born ca. 1662, daughter of James and Anne (Chamberlain) Case. He died after 1740 near Dartmouth.

Children:
- i. Esther, b. ca. 1685 at Little Compton. She probably married Thomas Hammond 31 Jan. 1719/20 at Tiverton.
- 2. ii. Edward, b. ca. 1688; m. Sarah ___.
- 3. iii. William, b. ca. 1690; m. 1st Mary Parker, 2nd Mary Tallman.
- iv. Matthew, b. ca. 1692; m. Phebe Burgess 17 Nov. 1726, both of Dartmouth. They apparently moved to Rochester where they lived until at least 1773 when he sold land to son Abner. They had children:
  - i. Sarah, b. 21 Feb. 1727/8.
  - ii. Elizabeth, b. 22 May 1731.
  - iii. Mary, b. 21 April 1735.
  - iv. Abner; from deed.

2. EDWARD^3 HOWARD, (Matthew^2, Edward^1), was born ca. 1688 and married Sarah ___. Edward Howard lived in Dartmouth, then Newport, then back to Dartmouth, then to Tiverton, RI, then to Little Compton, RI and then to Crum Elbow (sic).[1] He was probably the man who sold land to William Hall 26 Aug. 1746. The land was part of his homestead farm which was part of the third lot of the six-score acre lots laid out between the Puncateest outlet and the Old Dartmouth line. Hall sold the land 15 July 1747.[2]

He evidently left RI soon after for he was listed on a deed in Dutchess County dated 28 March 1748: "Edward Howard, late of Tiverton, in County of Bristol, New England, shipwright, but now resident of place called by ye Indian name 'pakipset' in Crown Elbow precinct, Duckes County in the government of New York, in consideration of 200 pounds "in good bills of Publik Credit old tenor" conveys to Caleb Tripp of Dartmouth, cordwainer, lands in Dartmouth, bounded northerly by lands now belonging to Joseph Soule, easterly by the river or salt water, and all other ways by lands and possession of Ichabod Eddy, which he bought of Timothy Soule," etc.

Edward Howard was taxed in Poughkeepsie Precinct, DC from June 1747 through June 1748 and in Beekman and Pawling from Feb. 1753[3] through June 1772. He was assessed in Beekman Precinct in Feb. 1753 at £5, in June 1758 at £4, in June 1760 at £5, in June 1763 at £4, and in June 1767 at £3. He was then assessed in Pawling Precinct in June 1770 at £3. Edward Howard was a Merritt store customer 1767-75 and his dau. Ruth, his son Edward, Patience Akin and Elisha Allen traded with him. [DCSB II:A-E].

Children:

- i. Ruth, b. 15 June 1722. She was noted on her father's Merritt store account in 1771 and 1775
- 4. ii. Edward, b. 22 Dec. 1724; m. Phebe Hart.
- iii. Patience, b. 28 Jan 1726/27; m. James Akin.[4] She was still alive in 1811 when her husband made his will.
- iv. Stephen, b. 4 Feb. 1731/32; m. Patience ___.
- v. ?Cynthia.[5]
- vi. ?Benjamin. Benjamin Howard was brought before the ConC Board 4 March 1777 and charged with altering the Currency of the State. James Kent was charged with the same. A number of bills they were supposed to have altered were also presented to the Board, as well as a gun belonging to Howard. He appeared at the Board meeting held Saturday 8 March 1777: "Benjamin Howard being Examined, Saith that he did confess to the Court of Enquiry that he had split one Bill, but does not remember that he had confessed that he had passed it, That he was induced to make this Confession thro' fear, for he now denies that he ever split the Bills, – Does not admit that hand writing on the paper, pasted on these Bills to be his, but thinks it possibly it may be[.]" [ConC 178, 187]

4. EDWARD[4-3] HOWARD (Matthew[2], Edward[1]), was born 22 Dec. 1724, probably at Dartmouth and m. Phebe Hart. She was born in Little Compton 15 May 1735, the dau. of Richard and Mary (Taber) Hart. He was taxed in Beekman and Pawling from Feb. 1753 through 1778, (as Edward Howard Jr. from 1770 to 1778). Edward Howard Jr. was assessed in Beekman Precinct in Feb. 1753 and Feb 1754 at £1, in June 1758 and 1760 at £2, in June 1763 and June 1767 at £3. Edward Howard Jr. was assessed in the Pawling Precinct in June 1770 and June 1775 at £4 and in June 1778 and June 1779 at £6.

He was in Pawling in 1790 at 2-2-4 between Stephen Howard and William Lewis. He was assessed in Pawling in Oct. 1799 on personal property worth $66 and he owed a tax of 6 cents. He was listed in Pawling in 1800 as Edward Sr. at 0-0-0-1-1 and 0-1-0-0-1 between Stephen Howard and Wright Birdsall.

In Jan. 1761 he was on a farm of 138 acres in lot 33 of the Oblong, DC with a quit-rent of £6/3/1. Others in this lot were Abraham Thomas, John Wickham, Phineas Chase and Ephraim Allen. He was mentioned in a mortgage of 31 March 1770 that involved land in lot 33 of the Oblong. [M 2:271].

Edward Howard Jr. was a Merritt store customer 1767-72 and he dealt on the accounts of Abraham Thomas, Moses Trim and Samuel Clarke. His unnamed dau. and his son Stephen traded on his account. [DCSB II:A-D]. The minutes of the Oblong meeting held 2nd month 1770 include: "The Woman Friends from their meeting intimated that Phebe Howard the wife of Edward Howard Jr. is Desirous with one of her children to be admitted unto Society, etc." [FHL MF 0017315, p. 280].

Edward Howard was taken prisoner by Capt. William Calkins, by order of Col. Andrew Morehouse, and brought before the ConC Board 14 May 1777. Calkins was paid £32/18/7½ by the Board for "Scouring the Woods & apprehending a Number of prisoners brought here by him." The next day the Board ordered Howard and about twenty other men to he confined on the Fleet Prison in Esopus Harbor at Kingston. The Board minutes for 29 May note: "Edward Howard (being one of the people Quakers) appear'd before this Board, and having Voluntarily affirmed Allegiance to this State, Ordered he be

It seems possible that he joined his brother Matthew in the Albany area at the beginning of the War: "John Bradt of the Vereburg who was robbed a few nights ago appeared before us with a certain William Howard who he informed us he had apprehended on suspicion of his being concerned in the robberies committed upon himself and Michael Halenbeeck and the said William Howard having in his possession at the time he was taken certain articles belonging to Michael Halenbeeck which were taken from him on the night he was robbed[;] therefore resolved that he be committed and a Mittimus made out to the Gaoler to take him into his custody and closely confine him." On 1 May 1779 the minutes show: "William Howard who a few days ago was apprehended on suspicion of being concerned in the Robberies committed on Michael Halenbeeck and John Bradt was this day again brought before the Board and examined, which examination is [not printed]." [AConC 334-5]. No further record of ?his activity in the Albany area.

Zephaniah Howard was a Mabbett store customer 1761-63 in Nine Partners. He bought rum, beaver hat, book, salt, rice, sugar, tea, mohair and molasses. His account was credited with cash. A Mary Howard was also at this store in 1761-2.[20] Sarah Carman and Robert Sands, administrators of Joshua Carman dec'd, survivors of Petrus Ten Broeck & Joshua Carman, sued Zephaniah Howard. [CP 17 Oct 1788].

In 1790 he was listed in Pawling at 2-2-2 between Theophilus Sweet and John Howard. He was assessed in Oct. 1799 on a house and land in Beekman valued at $440 with no personal property. He was also assessed in Pawling in 1799 on a house and farm valued at $1,572.50 and personal property worth $92. He owed a tax of $1.68. In 1800 he was listed at 0-0-1-1-1 and 0-1-1-0-1 between

HOWARD

Since this State Road was the most direct and best route from Springfield to Chicago, 137 years ago, Mr. Maxwell probably did a good business with his investment. He laid out a town to be called "Auburn" but the time was not yet ripe. So it was that even though the builders of the State Road were unaware of it, they were at the same time laying the first corner stone of the settlement that was, 20 years later, to become Washburn.

William Maxwell's father-in-law, Henry D. Palmer, was a county line property owner. In 1846 Mr. Palmer donated some land that a school house might be built and the families living on either side of the county line road saw to it that the school house was built. Thus a second firm and enduring foundation stone was adjoined to the first, and because this little settlement had sprung up on the line adjoining Marshall and Woodford counties, they called it Uniontown.

The laying of the third corner stone can perhaps be attributed to Peleg Sweet who came here in 1847. In Jacksonville, Illinois he became acquainted with a Christian minister and the men became good friends. Through this minister, Peleg worked out a trade by which he could come to Cazenovia Township, Woodford County. It must have been a worthwhile trade, because once here, he bought 800 acres of land along Parkside Drive.

He divided this land into 80-acre sections and put one of his ten children on each section, with the exception of the youngest, who in due time fell heir to the home place which Peleg built. The houses erected by the children of Sweet were all similar in construction, and since they were strung out from east to west, this strip became known as "Stringtown." Previous to this time, there were only three houses in the northwest quarter of Section One.

The final step came in 1851. Hiram Echols acquired the necessary land and laid out the original town. This comprised 12 blocks, eight of them in Woodford County and four of them in Marshall.

At the suggestion of Alonson Howard, the town was named Washburn. Joe Parker was the first to build a house in the newly-named town. A second house, a log cabin, was built by Printer Burgess Smith. Dr. Thomas was the first to buy a lot and some time later he built a drug store on it. This was a two-story building with a Masonic lodge room on the second floor. This was later removed to Jefferson Street and used by M. S. Fulton as a store. Today it stands as a residence on West Magnolia Street.

These years were filled with activity. A building boom was on and in 1852 Jesse Hammers built the first store for his brother. He was succeeded by Americus Pogue, who was succeeded by Cushing and Jenkins about 1853.

The post office was established in 1854 in Dr. Thomas' office. The first postmaster was the William Maxwell who figured so much in the early history of the town.

A brief survey shows that by 1855 Washburn had one store, one church (Baptist), one minister, and one doctor. Eggs were selling at 3¢ per dozen, butter was from 5¢ to 10¢ per pound, and corn sold for 15¢ per bushel.

A shoe shop was opened in 1856 and a second store building was built by a Mr. Ackey. J. G. Haines ran a harness shop and in 1857, A. M. Harper opened a shop. The next year August Iunker built a mill and John L. Black, the grandfather of Glen W. Black, was operating the Union Hotel.

In 1864 the Bliss Sisters opened their millinery store. Three years later, August Iunker built a steam flour mill.

The town later had another hotel, operated by Mr. and Mrs. John Carrithers. It is now the Harry Snyder home.

Benjamin Monroe operated a saloon, and Clay Little conducted a grocery store, with Jonathan Haines as the clerk. Mr. Haines later built the residence now occupied by Elmer E. Winkler.

In a lean-to on the south side of the Little store building, George C. Butler conducted a tin shop, while the family had living quarters in the rear. Between 1864-1867 Phillip Drennen and Charles McCulloch, the great uncle of Mrs. C. E. Spang-

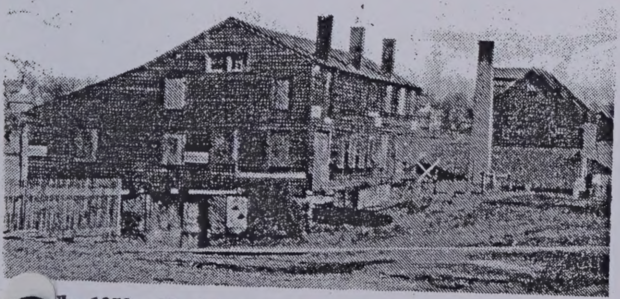
SWEET FAMILY REUNION

VILLAGE OF WASHBURN

The State Road from Springfield to Chicago passed through Half Moon Prairie in 1832. Somewhere along the county line in what is now north Washburn, an inn was built by William Maxwell, who kept four horses for the stage coach and provided rest for the travellers. He laid out a town, to be called "Auburn," but it remained only a plan. In 1846, his father-in-law, Henry D. Palmer, donated land for school purposes; families living on either side of the county line built the school house. There were three houses in the northwest quarter of Section One when Peleg Sweet arrived the next year, 1847. Born in Vermont, raised in New York State, Peleg Sweet and his wife moved to Ohio, then to southern Illinois and north to Jacksonville, where his friendship with a Christian minister resulted in a trade that brought the Peleg Sweet family to Cazenovia Township, Woodford County. Here he bought 800 acres of land, divided it into 80 acre sections, put one of his ten children on each section except for the youngest who would inherit the home place. The houses erected by the Sweet families were all similar in construction, strung out from east to west along what is now Parkside Drive, so this strip became known as "Stringtown." In 1851, Hiram Echols acquired the necessary land and laid out the original town of 12 blocks: 8 were in Woodford County, 4 were in Marshall County. The lots, 50x150 feet, were all sold: the highest brought $15, the lowest, $3. The town was called Uniontown, then for a brief period Mantua, until Alonson Howard suggested Washburn, which has been its name for the past 125 years. The first house raised in the newly named town stood at 503 W. State Street and was built by Joe Parker. Printer Burgess Smith built the second, a log cabin, at 411 W. Woodford. First lot sold went to Dr. Thomas, who later put up a 2-story building with a Masonic lodge room above and a drug store below. It was later moved to Jefferson Street, used as a store by M. S. Fulton, and today stands as a residence on W. Magnolia Street. In 1852 Jesse Hammers built the first store for his brother, who had poor health and was succeeded by Americus Pogue, in turn succeeded by Cushing and Jenkins, about 1853.

The post office, established in Dr. Thomas' office in 1854, had William Maxwell as the first postmaster. By 1855, Washburn had one store, one church, Baptist (Peleg Sweet was a strong Baptist), one minister, and one doctor. Market prices then would make today's bargains look like wholesale robbery, for eggs were 3 cents a dozen, butter from 5 cents to 10 cents per pound (depending on quality) and corn was 15 cents per bushel.

A shoe shop was opened in 1856, in a house on the west end of the first store lot, and a Mr. Ackey built a second store on Main Street. Next north of the Ackey building was J. C. Haines' harness shop. A. M. Harper opened a shop on the southeast corner of the Marshall County part of town in 1857, the year the German Reformed church was built at 808 N. Main. In 1858, August Iunker built a mill "under the hill" across the street from the Baptist church. The Methodists built their first church in 1863. The Union Hotel at 307 N. Main was operated by John L. Black. In 1864, the Bliss Sisters opened their millinery shop north of the Union Hotel, which stood across the street from the Baptist Church. The first Christian church was built in 1866. August Iunker built a steam flour mill in 1869. Another hotel, operated by Mr. and Mrs. John Carrithers, was moved eastward to 106 E. Chestnut with the coming of the railroad. Benjamin Moore had a saloon at 705 N. Main; Clay Little had a grocery store at 615 N. Main with Jonathan Haines as clerk. Mr. Haines later bought the Thomas Corner and built the residence at 614 Main Street. In a lean-to on the south side of the Little store, George C. Butler had a tin shop, while the family had living quarters in the rear. Between 1864-1867 Phillip Drennen and Charles McCulloch erected a building at the corner of Main and W. Magnolia, where they sold groceries. This store was later managed by A. S. Fishburn and his son, Edward. The building was moved to 110 W. Walnut, to become the Harper Apartments.



The 1858 mill of August Iunker stood on the north side of Church Street between Main Street and the bridge to its east across Snag Creek.

Those living in early Washburn forded the creek on Walnut Street to reach the east side. A foot bridge accommodated pedestrians. When Snag Creek flooded, a bridge on Stringtown Road (now Parkside Drive) was used. When the wooden bridge with a walkway beside it was built across Snag Creek on Walnut, the Stringtown bridge was used less and the road was closed.

The original town had 272 residents when the Chicago and Alton Railroad tracks were laid in 1870, several blocks east of town. The entire business district moved its buildings and by 1871, Washburn's business center was on Jefferson Street, close to the C. & A. Depot. Frank N. Ireland established the Washburn Bank in the Fulton building, and from then on, new buildings were built or older ones moved from the original town to Jefferson Street. Henry Sangbush moved his harness shop and built a front addition to it.

The town was incorporated in 1871, erasing all that was left to remind anyone of Uniontown. The first board of directors, elected that year, were: George C. Butler, F. Bennecke, S. W. McCulloch, Samuel Patrick, Henry Sangbush, and J. C. Haines. The board elected S. W. McCulloch, Pres.; M. S. Fulton, Clerk; F. N. Ireland, Treas.; R. H. Richard, Constable; William Cotton, Street Commissioner.

In 1873, Robert McCulloch laid out the McCulloch Addition. He was a retired farmer and tile manufacturer (the tile factory was just outside the northeast village limits), and built a home on lots 5 and 6 of McCulloch's Addition, now 600 N. Jefferson Street.

FAMILY REUNION.

In the year of 1818, Peleg Sweet, of Washington Co. N. Y., came with his family, then being the wife and four daughters, to Illinois, settling in the southern part of the state at Shawneetown, and after three years, moving to Morgan county, near Jacksonville. In 1846, the family now numbering fourteen members, four sons—Isaac N., E. A., S. A. and E. J., and eight daughters, moved to Woodford county, settling at Washburn. Here, around this town, were twelve families, the farthest one from the homestead being but four miles, where they resided, each on their own farm until 1864, when the migration began eastward and in a few years they were all settled in and around Chenoa, McLean, Co., the majority crossing the line into Livingston county. In a few years they began another movement, this time settling at Alexandra, Neb., and Cherry Vale, Kansas. For several years this family have observed April, 2nd as an anniversary day, this being the birthday of the mother, long since departed. The festive day was this time celebrated at the home of the eldest son, Isaac N., in Chenoa, where were gathered, of relatives and friends, in all sixty persons. When joy was at its height, a telegram was received announcing a similar gathering at Alexandria, Neb., of forty-eight of their own sending greeting. At the meeting in Chenoa there were present of the brothers and sisters: Isaac N. Sweet, age 74, E. A. Sweet, age 64, and Mrs. Catherine Dunham, age 72, of Chenoa: S. A. Sweet, of Englewood, age 62; Mrs. Elizabeth Howard, of Tobias, Neb., age, 76; Mrs. Ann Owen, Ballard, age, 70; Mrs. Abagail Taylor, Eureka, age 68.

Politically it can be said of this family they are Republicans and always have been. Their church relations are with the Baptist denomination and they have been closely associated with the interests and growth of that people during the history of the state of Illinois. There are still living, besides

HAD BEEN ILL 2 WEEKS;

SUFFERED APOPLEXY ATTACK IS IMMEDIATE CAUSE

17 February 1928 -- Mrs. Carrie M. SWIFT, 61, died at her home, 308 Hamilton Avenue at 10:15 o'clock Friday morning. Death was caused by apoplexy. She had been ill for the past 2 weeks. Only since 4 o'clock Friday morning had her condition been serious, however.

Mrs. SWIFT was born at Washburn, Illinois 18 August 1866, the oldest child of William Sylvester and Anna Elizabeth HOWARD. She married Henry K. SWIFT at Anthony, Kansas 6 March 1890.

She and her husband had moved to Danville in 1892. Her husband, a rural mail carrier, died in 1920. He was preceded in death only 3 months by their only son, Dean. One daughter, Mrs. Ruby (SWIFT) MEADE, at home, survives.

Mrs. SWIFT was a member of the First Baptist Church. The body was removed to the Page Memorial Funeral HOme and Saturday will be taken back to the residence. The funeral will be held Monday, the time and place to be announced later.

[After the build … they partly rowed and partly floated with the curren … wneetown, Illinois. Jonathan 6 remained in the neighborhood for about a year, preaching almost every Sunday in log houses at various places . . . .

"In 1823 he went by wagon across the prairies to Diamond Grove in Morgan County, Illinois, about five miles southeast of where Jacksonville was built afterwards."

Jonathan 6 was elected pastor of the Diamond Grove Society of Baptists soon after he arrived in that area. The year was 1823. In 1825 he was chosen first Public Administrator of Morgan County. He was a leading citizen of Morgan County and his tombstone in the churchyard is inscribed:

"He was a faithful pioneer Minister of Christ".

His death occurred on Dec. 20, 1837; Temperance died in November, 1842.

The children of Jonathan 6 and Temperance Sweet were: Peleg 7; Joseph; (Job?); Robert; Joel; Anna; Joanna; Alva; Sarah; Lois; and Francis

61 64 65

Peleg 7 and his brothers, Robert and Joel, either accompanied their parents to Diamond Grove or soon followed them to that locale. Another brother, Joseph, moved to nearby Loami in Sangamon County in 1830 and to Scyene, Texas in 1852.

Peleg 7, Robert, and Jonathan 6 in 1823 signed the constitution of the Morganian Society, an anti-slavery association which is believed to have been founded in that year. This was not a popular position to take at that time. Elijah Lovejoy, a newspaper editor, was lynched by a mob in Alton, Ill. in 1837, for his vigorous efforts to end slavery in the United States.

In 1843 Peleg 7 acquired a large tract of land near Washburn in Woodford County. Three years later he moved to that place. Soon "he called all his children to him and settled them around him". Peleg died in 1850; Abigail in 1870. The children of Peleg 7 and Abigail were:

The marriages of the Howard brothers, Stephen, Tilton, and Alanson, to Peleg's daughters, Lamira Ann, Temperance, and Elizabeth, are not all of the connection between the two families. It began with the marriage on Dec. 13, 1793 of Sylvester Howard, son of Zephaniah and Valerie Wooley Howard, to Lydia Sweet, granddaughter of Benjamin Sweet and niece of Francis 5 Sweet. (Lydia's brother, Theophilus, Jr., as mentioned above, lived in Sangamon County, Ill.)

Eliakim Howard, another son of Sylvester and Lydia, married Sarah Sweet, Jan. 2, 1825. She was a younger sister of Peleg. A generation later than these marriages, Gilbert Howard, son of Alanson and Elizabeth Sweet Howard, married a sister of George M. Hayes, husband of Lola Sweet. The foregoing is probably not a complete account of the connections between the Sweet and Howard families.

JONATHAN SWEET

The JONATHAN SWEET and TEMPERANCE HOLDRIGE Family
(1761-1837) (1768-1842)

Jonathan Sweet was born in West Greenwich, Rhode Island on April 29, 1761. His parents were Francis Sweet and Sarah Harrington. In 1782 Jonathan Sweet married Temperance Holdridge, the daughter of Thomas and Anna Holdridge. Temperance had been born on March 12, 1768, so she was 14 at the time of her marriage. They were marrried in Hancock, Massachusetts.

d 1840

I believe that Jonathan and Temperance had twelve or more children. They were:

	born
girl	before 1790
girl	1784-1790
Peleg	May 3, 1786
Robert	1785-1790
Joel	1794-1800
boy	1790-1800
boy	1795-1800
girl	1794-1800
girl	1795-1800
Sarah	1802
boy	1800-1810
Frances	1808-1810

Peleg and Sarah are the only ones whose names I am sure of, for the others I am sure of the sex and age but not the name.

In 1790 Jonathan's family was living in Cambrige, New York near his parents. In 1800 both families had moved to Burlington. In 1810 Jonathan's family is listed on the census for Dutchess County. The census taker wrote down the livestock owned by each family, and whether or not they had a loom or owned a mill. Jonathan had nine horses, sixteen head of cattle, and fifty sheep. He also owned a fulling mill. By 1820 the family was back in Burlington.

Shortly after this Jonathan and Temperance moved west. By this time they were in their late fifties or sixties. They went with their son Peleg, his wife, and four daughters. I think that Sarah also went with them, and possibly some of their other children. Robert, Joel, and Francis all lived near their parents in Morgan County. Jonathan and Temperance stopped for a short while in Ohio, and then went to Morgan County, Illinois.

Peleg married Abigail Bardeen in Burlington. They had four daughters in New York and eight more children in Illinois.

Robert had at least seven children. Joel had at least six.

Sarah married Eliakim Howard. They had two children but they both died in childhood. Three of Eliakim's brothers married Peleg's daughters.

Francis' wife was named Ann. They had at least eleven children.

Jonathan died in Morgan County, December 20, 1837, age 76. Temperance died there November 1, 1842, age 74.

PELEG SWEET, son of JONATHAN SWEET and TEMPERANCE HOLDRIDGE was born May 3, 1786 in Hancock, Massachusetts. ABIGAIL BARDEEN, daughter of MOSES BARDEEN and CATHERINE COOK was born April 2, 1790 in Croydon, New Hampshire. PELEG and ABIGAIL were married July 3, 1808 and lived in Burlington, N. Y. where four of their twelve children were born.

~~In 1819~~ the family moved west in a covered wagon. They first moved to Ohio and then settled in Illinois, ~~probably~~ in Morgan County near Jacksonville. When they left New York their little girls were 9, 6, 4, and 2. The next child, a boy, was born in 1821 either in ~~Ohio or~~ Illinois. The other eight children born to PELEG and ABIGAIL were:

PELEG's parents, JONATHAN and TEMPERANCE SWEET and at least one sister of PELEG's moved to Illinois also. JONATHAN died in Jacksonville, Illinois Dec. 20, 1837 and TEMPERANCE died Nov. 1, 1842 also in Jacksonville. They lived to see all of PELEG's children born and JONATHAN lived to see three and TEMPERANCE four of PELEG's oldest daughter LAMIRA's children. TEMPERANCE was alive when LAMIRA's son, JORDAN T. HOWARD was born in 1841. He was my great grandfather.

and their sons

PELEG's sister married Eliakim Howard, son of SYLVESTER HOWARD and LYDIA SWEET. Eliakim was PELEG's and his sister's second cousin. Trella Hall, who is descended from Eliakim Howard and PELEG SWEET's sister compiled a lot of these records. Her address (in 1971) is given below.

In the 1840's Peleg & Abigail moved to Woodford Co. Several of their daughters families moved Woodford Co. there as well.

LAMIRA married STEPHEN H. HOWARD, Eliakim's brother, son of SYLVESTER HOWARD and LYDIA SWEET. They were the parents of William, Nelson, Justus, JORDAN and Abigail and another child who died in infancy. Nelson and Abigail died young. The other three married and raised families. JORDAN, my great grandfather, was born in Morgan County Illinois near Jacksonville, but LAMIRA and STEPHEN moved to ~~Washburn~~, Illinois in 1855. They ~~probably~~ lived in Chenoa, Illinois later because they were both buried there. STEPHEN died in 1884 and LAMIRA moved to Cherryvale, Kansas in 1887 with JORDAN and his family. Her son, Justus, also moved to Cherryvale. LAMIRA died there in 1899.

Livingston Co. near

Mary J. Sweet married Isaac W. Carson on April 5, 1838.

Temperance Sweet married Tilton Howard, STEPHEN's brother, on May 8, 1834.

Elizabeth Sweet married their brother, Alanson Howard on Oct. 18, 1838. Mrs. Floyd Byrne, whose address is given below is descended from one of these Sweet-Howard couples.

Isaac Sweet married Louisa P. Abbott March 9, 1864.

Catherine Sweet married Ed Dunham Jan. 26, 1846. They lived in or near Cherryvale, Kansas in about 1890. A large group of Sweets and Howards visited them there and had their picture taken.

EDWARD ROSCOE BURT, a leading farmer of Forrest Twp., located on Section 17, is a native of Cheshire County, N.H., and was born on the 14th. of January 1846. He is the son of Joseph E. and Harriet M. (Hodskins) Burt, natives of Vermont and New Hampshire respectively. The mother died on the 26th. of October, 1860, and the father on the 31st. July 1879. The latter was engaged in farming during his life. He arrived in Illinois on the 27th. November 1856, and first located at Brimfield, Peoria County, where he bought 80 acres to which he afterwards added eighty more. On this place he followed general farming and stock raising until his death. He was a Republican and took an active part in political affairs. He was the father of the following children: E. ROSCOE; CLIFFORD W.; LAURA H.; EVA L.; CHARLES H.; CORA A.; ABBIE U.; and ALTA E. C. W. was married to a Miss Alice Himes, and he located in Brimfield Twp., Peoria County, Ill., engaged in farming, and died in 1876, leaving a wife and two children, named MAUD and PHILIP, both of whom are in New York State with their mother. Laura H. died in Peoria County at the age of twenty-seven years; Eva L. died in infancy. The father was married a second time, to Mrs. Himes, and by this union there was one child, named above, Alta E., who died of Typhoid Fever in 1876, aged fourteen years. On the father's side the ancestors were of Scotch-Irish descent.

The subject of our sketch remained at home until he was twenty-one years of age, assisting at work upon the farm and attending school nine months in the year. Upon leaving home he rented a farm in Forrest Twp., for one year of Thomas Weeks, next of C. C. Bartlett, on which he remained for three years, after which he rented a farm on Section 20, which he occupied and tended for one year. Dec. 23, 1871, Mr. Burt was married to Mrs. Jennie (Stuckey) Howard, daughter of Edward and Margaret (Gillet) Stuckey. The father died about 1864, and one year later the mother died. They were farmers and became residents of McLean County in 1858. They were the parents of twelve children, named as follows: GEORGE; DANIEL; JAMES; CHARLES; MARY ANN; JOB; WALTER; JENNIE; ARTHUR; THOMAS and ANNIE. Job and Walter died while serving in the Union Army, and James died after coming back from the Army. Four brothers enlisted in the 52nd. Illinois Infantry on the 17th. of September 1861, and re-enlisted as Veterans at Pulaski, Tenn., on the 25th. of December 1863. E. R. Burt, the subject of our sketch, enlisted in Company K I, 146th. Illinois Infantry, on the 26th. of August 1864, and was discharged on the 8th. of July 1865, at Springfield, because of the close of the War. A number of men enlisted in his Company had been in the Army before and were experienced soldiers.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt have been born three children: EVA J., Sept. 29th. ; MABEL H., Oct. 18th. 1874 and WALTER A., Feb. 23rd. 1877. Mr. Burt been Collector of Forrest Township for one year, and is at present ol Director of District No. 4, which office he has held for fifteen s.

rs. Burt has been twice married, her first husband being Philip Howard, #1249 whom she was united in marriage in 1868. He was a native of New York e, a farmer by occupation and a Republican in politics. One child was to them, on November 23, 1869, named LOLA L. Mr. Howard died in Feb- y, 1870.

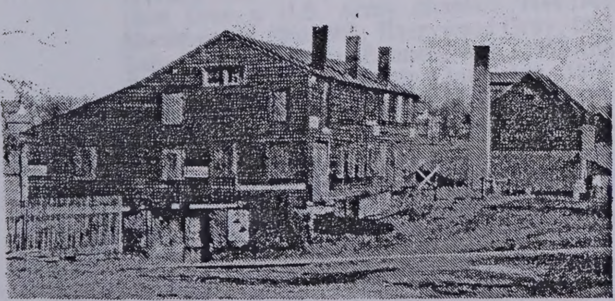
VILLAGE OF WASHBURN

The State Road from Springfield to Chicago passed through Half Moon Prairie in 1832. Somewhere along the county line in what is now north Washburn, an inn was built by William Maxwell, who kept four horses for the stage coach and provided rest for the travellers. He laid out a town, to be called "Auburn," but it remained only a plan. In 1846, his father-in-law, Henry D. Palmer, donated land for school purposes; families living on either side of the county line built the school house. There were three houses in the northwest quarter of Section One when Peleg Sweet arrived the next year, 1847. Born in Vermont, raised in New York State, Peleg Sweet and his wife moved to Ohio, then to southern Illinois and north to Jacksonville, where his friendship with a Christian minister resulted in a trade that brought the Peleg Sweet family to Cazenovia Township, Woodford County. Here he bought 800 acres of land, divided it into 80 acre sections, put one of his ten children on each section except for the youngest who would inherit the home place. The houses erected by the Sweet families were all similar in construction, strung out from east to west along what is now Parkside Drive, so this strip became known as "Stringtown." In 1851, Hiram Echols acquired the necessary land and laid out the original town of 12 blocks: 8 were in Woodford County, 4 were in Marshall County. The lots, 50x150 feet, were all sold: the highest brought $15, the lowest, $3. The town was called Uniontown, then for a brief period Mantua, until Alonson Howard suggested Washburn, which has been its name for the past 125 years. The first house raised in the newly named town stood at 503 W. State Street and was built by Joe Parker. Printer Burgess Smith built the second, a log cabin, at 411 W. Woodford. First lot sold went to Dr. Thomas, who later put up a 2-story building with a Masonic lodge room above and a drug store below. It was later moved to Jefferson Street, used as a store by M. S. ulton, and today stands as a residence on W. Magnolia reet. In 1852 Jesse Hammers built the first store for his brother, who had poor health and was succeeded by Americus Pogue, in turn succeeded by Cushing and Jenkins, about 1853.

The post office, established in Dr. Thomas' office in 1854, had William Maxwell as the first postmaster. By 1855, Washburn had one store, one church, Baptist (Peleg Sweet was a strong Baptist), one minister, and one doctor. Market prices then would make today's bargains look like wholesale robbery, for eggs were 3 cents a dozen, butter from 5 cents to 10 cents per pound (depending on quality) and corn was 15 cents per bushel.

A shoe shop was opened in 1856, in a house on the west end of the first store lot, and a Mr. Ackey built a second store on Main Street. Next north of the Ackey building was J. C. Haines' harness shop. A. M. Harper opened a shop on the southeast corner of the Marshall County part of town in 1857, the year the German Reformed church was built at 808 N. Main. In 1858, August Iunker built a mill "under the hill" across the street from the Baptist church. The Methodists built their first church in 1863. The Union Hotel at 307 N. Main was operated by John L. Black. In 1864, the Bliss Sisters opened their millinery shop north of the Union Hotel, which stood across the street from the Baptist Church. The first Christian church was built in 1866. August Iunker built a steam flour mill in 1869. Another hotel, operated by Mr. and Mrs. John Carrithers, was moved eastward to 106 E. Chestnut with the coming of the railroad. Benjamin Moore had a saloon at 705 N. Main; Clay Little had a grocery store at 615 N. Main with Jonathan Haines as clerk. Mr. Haines later bought the Thomas Corner and built the residence at 614 Main Street. In a lean-to on the south side of the Little store, George C. Butler had a tin shop, while the family had living quarters in the rear. Between 1864-1867 Phillip Drennen and Charles McCulloch erected a building at the corner of Main and W. Magnolia, where they sold groceries. This store was later managed by A. S. Fishburn and his son, Edward. The building was moved to 110 W. Walnut, to become the Harper Apartments.



The 1858 mill of August Iunker stood on the north side Church Street between Main Street and the bridge to its east across Snag Creek.

Those living in early Washburn forded the creek on Walnut Street to reach the east side. A foot bridge accommodated pedestrians. When Snag Creek flooded, a bridge on Stringtown Road (now Parkside Drive) was used. When the wooden bridge with a walkway beside it was built across Snag Creek on Walnut, the Stringtown bridge was used less and the road was closed.

The original town had 272 residents when the Chicago and Alton Railroad tracks were laid in 1870, several blocks east of town. The entire business district moved its buildings and by 1871, Washburn's business center was on Jefferson Street, close to the C. & A. Depot. Frank N. Ireland established the Washburn Bank in the Fulton building, and from then on, new buildings were built or older ones moved from the original town to Jefferson Street. Henry Sangbush moved his harness shop and built a front addition to it.

The town was incorporated in 1871, erasing all that was left to remind anyone of Uniontown. The first board of directors, elected that year, were: George C. Butler, F. Bennecke, S. W. McCulloch, Samuel Patrick, Henry Sangbush, and J. C. Haines. The board elected S. W. McCulloch, Pres.; M. S. Fulton, Clerk; F. N. Ireland, Treas.; R. H. Richard, Constable; William Cotton, Street Commissioner.

Village presidents since then and their terms of office have been: 1896, Henry Lesch; 1899, Charles Ireland; 1901, George Moschel; 1902, I. H. Wendling; 1907, F. A. Ehringer; 1912, B. F. Heighway; 1916, Henry Lesch (until Mar. 1917); 1917, C. T. Ireland; 1918, B. F. Heighway; 1921, Russell Tweddale; 1923, William Knapp; 1925, C. A. Fitschen; 1929, William Knapp; 1931, C. L. Boon; 1935, F. N. Ireland; 1937, Henry Becker; 1941, John R. Tweddale; 1945, Heike Tjaden; 1957, Walter Robbins; 1965, F. M. Kennedy; 1969, Elmer Nuske; 1973, Elmer Nuske.

In 1873, Robert McCulloch laid out the McCulloch Addition. He was a retired farmer and tile manufacturer (the tile factory was just outside the northeast village limits), and built a home on lots 5 and 6 of McCulloch's Addition, now 600 N. Jefferson Street.

WASHBURN CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Salem Church, one of the forerunners of the Washburn Christian Church, was organized on June 12, 1835, in the home of Nathan and Elizabeth Owen at the foot of the hill below Salem Cemetery. The covenant they formed was signed by Nathan and Elizabeth Owen; Elder Henry D. Palmer and Patsy Palmer, his wife; Isaac Black;
William Maxwell and wife; James Ledgerwood and Mary R. Ledgerwood; Robert Bennington and wife; Robert, Daniel, and Thomas Owen; Lynn Hendricks; Mordecai Bane and wife; Elizabeth Boon; W. P. Carrithers and wife, and many others. The remnants of this congregation formed a nucleus for the Washburn Christian Church. Among them were "Old Sister Carrithers"; James Ledgerwood and wife; "Sister Clell Harper" (daughter of Nathan Owen); Pleasant Ireland and his wife, Matilda; James Owen and wife; Simeon Linn, wife and daughter. Others of the 30 charter members came from a group that had worshipped in the Vernon School east of Washburn: Sister Burnham; Garrett Worth; James West and wife; "Aunt Betsy" Black; Thos. Pickerell and wife; Elias Fisher and wife. The Washburn Christian Church organized in late June, 1864, following a successful "protracted meeting" held by David Sharples, an evangelist sponsored by Illinois Disciples of Christ, who used the Baptist Church on Main Street for these meetings. The Baptist church continued to be the meeting place for this congregation until they bought a lot and began to build their own church in 1867, which was completed and dedicated in Feb., 1868. Moved to its present site in 1890, it was improved and rededicated. A new parsonage was built in 1909. A new educational plant and combined chapel and church parlor were built and dedicated in 1961. In October. 1964, the church celebrated its first 100 years of service. Men who have served Washburn Christian Church as regularly called ministers have been: John C. McCune, 1864; Charles Rowe alternated on a half-time basis with John C. McCune, 1870; (Minonk) David Sharples, July 1, 1871; Hugh B. Rice, summer of 1872; John D. Henry, autumn of 1873; David Sharples, Jan. 1, 1875; Theodore Brooks, fall of 1876; Ap Cobb, May 1, 1879; J. A. Brennenstuhl, May 1, 1880-April 1, 1882; R. E. Dunlap, Sept. 1, 1882-Sept. 1, 1886; Wm. H. Hayden, Oct., 1886-June, 1888 (went from here as a missionary to Jamaica); T. A. Boyer, July-Aug., 1888 (supply); W. A. Humphrey, Sept. 1, 1888-1894; S. S. Lappin, Sept. 1, 1894-1896; I. H. Fuller, Sept. 2, 1896-June 1, 1898; J. W. Kilborn, July 24, 1898-Dec. 31, 1904; H. H. Jenner, Jan. 1, 1904-Nov. 10, 1906; Rochester Irwin, Jan. 1, 1907-Dec. 31, 1908; Rome G. Jones, Oct. 1, 1909-May 1, 1913; G. T. Smith, July 1, 1913-June 14, 1915; W. T. Walker, July 1, 1915; George A. Rinehardt; F. H. DeVol, Jan. 2, 1920-Oct. 1929 (longest pastorate of this church); Ralph Eller, Oct. 1, 1929-July 1, 1930; Chauncey R. Piety, Aug., 1930-March, 1934; D. J. Howe, June, 1934-Nov., 1938 (stricken with heart attack in pulpit. Died a year later); Lee Dairs (Eureka student), Jan.-Feb., 1939; John Hallock (supply), Mar., 1939-Jan., 1940; Albert L. Bradbury, Mar. 1, 1940-1944; Edward D. Hamner, June 1, 1944-Sept. 30, 1946; Kenneth C. Hanson, Dec. 15, 1946-1952 (had been a U.S. Army chaplain 1944-1946); Merrill Hershberger, 1952-1955; Harrywood Gray, 1955-1958; Neil Sallee, 1958-1961; Mr. Bennett, Apr., 1961-Aug., 1961; F. WASHBURN UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Sometime around 1856 the Methodist group of Washburn became a regular preaching point of the Washington District. The worship services had been conducted in the Toy Wagon Shop (run by Mr. Toy, who built farm wagons), located across from the Baptist Cemetery at the northwest corner of Main and Church Streets; at the local school-house; or in the Baptist Church. The first church built by this congregation was at the corner of Woodford and Main Streets, was erected in 1863, later became a school-house and then a residence. The congregation built a new church in 1890, on Jefferson Street. This church burned in 1903 and the present church was built on the same site. The parsonage, built in 1894, was remodelled in 1911 and has been improved at times since then. In 1939 when three branches of Methodism united, the women's organizations became one, the present women's Society for Christian Service. A yoke-field ministry with Lowpoint Evangelical United Brethren Church began in Nov., 1964.

Early names in this congregation are: Barnes, Boys, Combes, Hall, Hoover, Hollenbeck, Iliff, Owen, Perry, and Shugart.

Some ministers who have served this congregation: 1856-57, John Grundy; 1857-59, A. C. Price; 1859-60, W. A. Prepon, H. M. Connell; 1860-61, B. P. Wheat; 1861-62, W. J. Stubbles; 1862-64, G. M. Irwin; 1864-65, J. W. Haney; 1865-67, Joseph Hart; 1867-68, A. K. Tullis; 1868-69, Thomas Cotton; 1869-70, A. K. Tullis, M. C. Eignus; 1870-73, G. P. Snedake , 1873-74, W. A. Cumming; 1874-75, E. B. WASHBURN UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Early in the history of Presbyterianism the church divided into several organizations: the Old School, New School, Reformed, Associate Reformed, Cumberland Presbyterian, and Covenanters. They all accepted and recognized the Westminster Confession of Faith as their standard, but owing to a slight difference of interpretation they divided into these different bodies.

In 1853, the Associate Reformed (later United Presbyterian) church society organized with Rev. McClanahan, the first Presbyterian minister in Cazenovia Township as their pastor. They used an old log school house which was standing west of the Lowpoint Methodist Episcopal Church and west of the present Lowpoint Cemetery as a place of worship. Just before and during the Civil War a number of families moved into the community, which added to the church membership. On November 3, 1854 a group of people formally organized a church called the Associate Reformed Church of Lowpoint, Illinois.

In 1858, through action of their General Assembly, the Associate Reformed and Reformed churches united under the name of United Presbyterian, and the congregation here became the United Presbyterian Church of Lowpoint. On their organization, the church called Rev. P. H. Drennen as pastor. Among the charter members were: James Piper and wife; J. M. McCulloch and wife; Robert McCulloch and wife; Charles F. McCulloch; James Wright and wife; George Johnson and wife; Archibald Holferty and wife; William Drennen and wife; Samuel Beard and wife; Mrs. Sunderland and two daughters; John M. Pinkerton and wife; John Bayne and wife; William Carson and wife; Hugh, Joseph C., Alexander, Batey, Elizabeth, and Belle Carson; S. D. Wilson and wife; Jared Irwin and wife and two daughters, Mary Jane and Magdalene, who later became respectively Mrs. Hess and Mrs. Weede.

In 1859, on land a mile east of Lowpoint and slightly north, on the east side of the road, eighty members built a brick church 40x50 feet, for $3,000.00. This church was dedicated in December, 1859, with Dr. Wallace, President of Monmouth College, delivering the dedication sermon.

After the Civil War, the congregation gradually shifted to the north in the neighborhood of Washburn and decided as a matter of convenience to sell the old church and build in Washburn, on lots one and two, Block 3, Black's burned in 1893 and the present church was built on the same site. The parsonage, built in 1901, was remodeled in 1957 and has been improved at times since then. In 1939 when three branches of Methodism united, the women's organizations became one, the present women's Society for Christian Service. A yoke (sharing) ministry with Lowpoint Evangelical United Brethren Church began in Nov., 1964.

Early names in this congregation are: Barnes, Boys, Combes, Hall, Hoover, Lollenbeck, Hill, Owen, Perry, and Shuggart.

Some ministers who have served this congregation: 1856-57, John Grundy; 1857-58, A. C. Price; 1858-60, W. A. Pregson; H. M. Connell, 1860-61; B. F. Wheat, 1861-62, W. J. Stubbles, 1862-64; G. M. VOL. IX No. 2
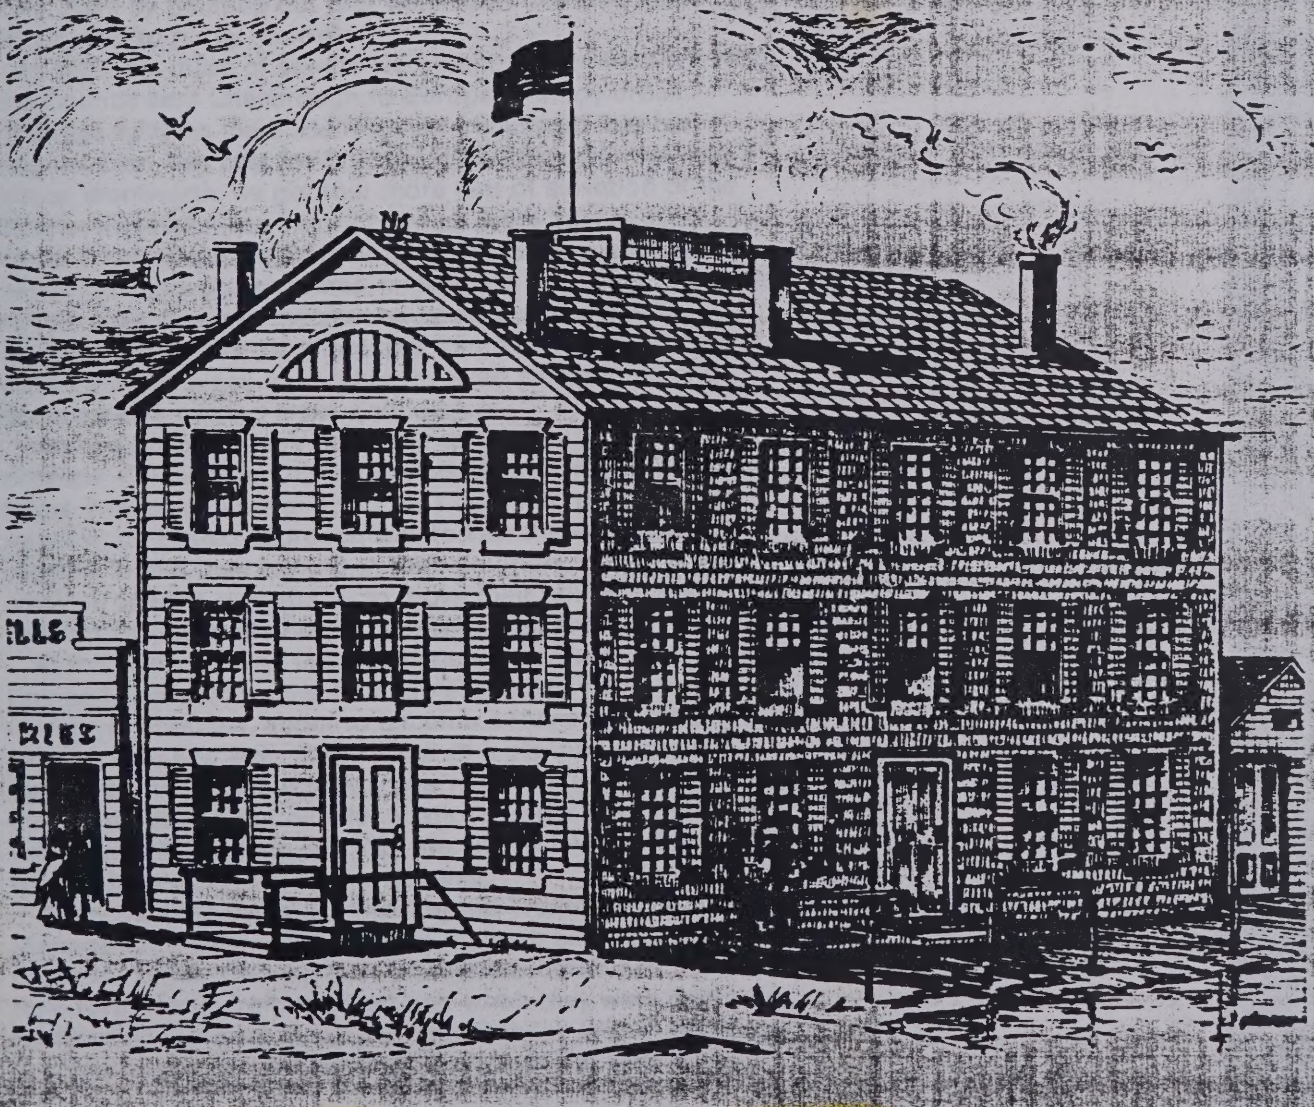
WINTER 1976

Chicago Genealogist



The first Tremont Hotel, built in 1839 by Alanson Sweet, was a wooden structure at the northwest corner of Lake and Dearborn. The hotel burned in 1839.

Chgo. Public Lobb
Chicago

'Long John' made it three feet higher.

Although Chesbrough was able to get the streets elevated only about one-half as much as he wanted, it was enough. He was able to design a sewer system that worked. The drainage area was bounded by Division Street on the north, Reuben (now Ashland) on the west, North Street (now 16th Street) on the south, and by Lake Michigan. Since this required the sewers to be designed for a flatter grade, they could not maintain the velocity of flow necessary to be self-cleansing. Therefore, Chesbrough had to rely on adding water to flush periodically, or on hand-cleaning the sewers, both of which in the long run would be more expensive.

This plan was adopted by the Sewerage Board and presented to the Council on December 31, 1855. The public was alarmed about endangering the health of the city by sewers discharging into the river, but Chesbrough allayed their fears by pointing out that water from the lake could be introduced to purify the river.

In 1856, six miles of sewers were built. In the winter of 1856, the Council sent Chesbrough to Europe to study urban drainage systems there. He returned convinced that his original plan was best for Chicago. So, again with the help of Mayor Wentworth, he got four more feet of elevation of the streets, and five miles more of sewers were built in 1857. While Chesbrough's sewers improved sanitary conditions, havoc was wrought at homes, shops, and buildings where the streets rose nearly to the second floor. The occupants couldn't see across the street and to cross a thoroughfare or pass from one block to another involved climbing up and down steeply pitched stairs and ladders.

Various propositions were made to remedy this new problem. One was to fill the depressed land sites, making first floors into basements and second floors into main floors. Another suggested approach was to tear the city down, regrade it, and then rebuild. A third solution, for some with small structures, was simply to move their house or shop on rollers to another site beyond the regraded area.

At this time, another imaginative engineer from New England appeared on the Chicago scene. His name was George M. Pullman, about to become a manufacturer of railroad cars and later the founder of a planned industrial town. He thought the solution was relatively simple—just raise the buildings and put new foundations under them. Pullman was soon the laughing stock of the city as he was ridiculed for his impossible and insane scheme.

A few building owners, including the Tremont House management, were willing to give Pullman an opportunity to prove his point. The engineer promptly ordered one hundred turn-screw jacks from the East and when they were delivered, he hired a laborer to man each one of them. Within weeks the Tremont House was elevated to the new street level without Harry Howard Services Held In Manville Sat.

Funeral services for Harry D. Howard, 90, long-time resident of Manville, were held Saturday at 2:00 p.m. from the Manville Community Church with J. Wesley Libb officiating. Burial was in the Manville Cemetery.

Mr. Howard died at his home in Manville suddenly last Wednesday morning. He had not previously been ill.

The Rev. Ed Poser and Mrs. J. W. Libb sang, "Sweet Will of God" and "It is Well With My Soul". They were accompanied by Mrs. Con Showalter.

Pallbearers were: Louis Bowen, Al Knudsen, Alvin Alexander, Paul Sullivan, Art Rathbun and Marion Rasmussen.

Honorary pallbearers were: Walter Vanhorn, Lee Stoddard, Orville Dryer and Zeb Ward.

Harry Delos Howard was born at Chenoa, Ill. December 31, 1873 the son of Bradford and Rebecca Howard. At an early age he moved with his parents to Nebraska where he grew to manhood. September 18, 1901 he and Miss Neletta Pettet were married at her home in Chicago. They made their home in Lusk following the wedding and lived here until 1904 when they moved back to Nebraska, first to Fairfield and later to Atkinson.

In 1918 the family returned to Wyoming and have lived at Manville since that time. As a young man he joined the Baptist Church and at the time of his death he was a member of the Manville Community Church. For a number of years he taught music and directed choirs in addition to operating his jewelry business. He kept constantly at work at his trade until a few days before his death. His favorite pastime was playing checkers and his subtle humor and his gentle nature made him a favorite in the community.

He is survived by his wife, Neletta; three daughters, Mrs. Murrin Keenan of Pine Bluffs, Mrs. Emma Richardson of Manville and Mrs. A. F. DeCastro of Lusk; two sons, Ross Howard of Cheyenne and Robert Howard of Redlands, Calif.; and 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Town Council Seeks
Gas Tax Revenue

The Lusk Town Council is proposing to levy a one cent per gallon tax on gasoline. A hearing on the proposed new tax has been set for September 21.

The tax is made possible because of a correction in the state statues that was made during the special session of the 37th legislature. Many of Wyoming municipalities are also making plans to

THE TRADES CARNIVAL

A Full List of the Participants.

TWO THOUSAND DOLLAR COSTUME.

Description of the Costumes Worn.

The Trades Carnival which was held at the Opera House Friday and Saturday evenings of last week, Sept. 13 and 14, was decidedly one of the very best entertainments ever given in Cherryvale by home talent. Fifty-two young ladies participated, representing by their handsome costumes the different business houses in the city. All branches of business were not represented, but the stage room was overly crowded as it was, and the beauty of the display would have been marred by more representatives. The costumes were all neat and tasty, and several of them quite expensive. When the hour of 8 arrived, on Friday evening, the Opera House was well filled by the leading people of the city, and at 8.30 the companies, six in number, headed by their drill master, Mr. A. G. Hall, marched in single file from the drill hall to the Opera House, and soon after companies 1, 2, and 3, appeared on the stage amid uproarous applause and went through with a very pleasing drill, which was closed by a hollow square being formed and a "parade rest" position taken. Compaines 4, 5, and 6, then filed on to the stage and were greeted with cheers. They were drilled separately a few moments and then the entire six companies were manipulated in a manner to reflect great credit on Mr. Hall and the young ladies. Applause greeted many of the handsome movements, which, considering the crowded condition of the stage, were performed remarkable well. The companies were headed as follows: No. 1, by Miss Carfie Prewitt; No. 2, by Miss Minnie Newton; No. 3, Miss Luetta Bell; No. 4, by Miss Addie Plowman; No. 5, Mrs. C. A. Paxson; No. 6, by Mrs. J. C. Hockett. Much praise is due to Mr. A. J. Hall for his excellent training and the admirable manner in which he conducted the entire performance.

Mrs. J. T. Howard is also deserving of special praise and notice for her untiring and indefatigable efforts to make the Carnival the grand success it proved to be. The young ladies of the "Peak Family," under whose auspicies the Carnival was given, desire to especially thank Mrs. Howard, Mr. Hall, the young ladies who costumed and the business men who were represented, for their assistance and encouragement.

The refreshments served on Friday evening consisted of ice cream, cake, fruit etc. On Saturday evening no refreshments were served, and the drilling was interspersed by a recitation by Mrs. C. O. Wright and also one by Mrs. J. C. Hockett, after which the competitive drill took place, resulting in a victory for Company No. 2, headed by Miss Minnie Newton. The judges were Mayor C. A. Mitchell, Hon. Revilo Newton and Mr. W. C. Logan. Each company did nicely, but the judges saw a little more accuracy and precision of movement in No. 2, than in either of the others.

The entertainment was highly gratifying to all concerned and reflects much credit on the young ladies composing the "Peak Family" of the Baptist church. The gross receipts were about $50, which will probably leave a net profit of about $35 for the family—the Peak Family.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COSTUMES.

Prewitt & Co's. dry-goods house was represented by Miss Carrie Prewitt. She was dressed in an evening dress of black silk with an over-dress of Valenciennes lace. On the right side of the skirt was a panel of light blue plush, which was decorated with kid gloves, napkins, handkerchiefs, arosine, etc., and was caught up with brilliants and bells with silver tinsel. From the panel, across the front of the dress, was a white brocaded, a pink satin and a sea-green surah scarf. The pink scarf came around to the back of dress and was fastened with a brilliant pin. The sash was fringed at the ends with balls of silver and gold tinsel. The green scarf which was short, hung over the pink just at the left side, near the back, and they were caught together with brilliant pins. The white came directly over the front and hung in a fan shaped bow near the bottom of the dress. At the bottom of the skirt, between the white and pink sash, was an open white satin fan. Back of skirt was covered with a white lace curtain over which notions were artistically pinned with many colored pins. The bodice had low neck and short sleeves. Bracelets of spools of embroidery silk, necklace of brilliants long white silk mitts. Back of bodice trimmed with different colôred jet trimming, and veiling, from shoulder down to waist. A long white veil was pinned to each shoulder and hung down over back of the dress. Hair decorated with brilliant pins. In the hand a fan upon which appeared the firm's name.

Montgomery County Bank was represented by Miss Minnie Newton, who carried a star shaped banner, with name of the Bank in gold letters. Her dress white embroidered mull with satin bodice trimmed with bonds, drafts, checks, certificates of stock etc. Representing many thousands of dollars of securities belonging to this popular Bank. While this display was elegant and very valuable, the Bankers exercised caution, as nothing but such securities were used, as could have been replaced, and payment stopped on them, had the whole lot been destroyed. Miss Newton did credit to the great corporation she represented.

Miss Luetta Bell, the worthy representative of Miss Riley's millinery store, wore a handsome black silk with white satin sash. She was profusely decorated with red, gray and blue ostrich plumes. [illegible] masterpiece of art, which jauntily set off her very rich, and becoming costume. Trimmings in lace and gold completed this handsome costume.

The Southern Kansas Division of the A. T. & S. F. road was represented by Miss Addie Plowman, who was very handsomely and appropriately attired in a cream and blue satin, draped with Railroad Posters, photographs of switch engine, banner with A. T. & S. F. thereon in gold. A conductor's cap, silver lantern and burnished punches helped to complete a very attractive costume. Miss Addie proved an admirable representative of that mammoth corporation.

The First National Bank was represented by Mrs. C. A. Paxson, whose costume was literally a mass of gold and currency, amounting in the aggregate to several thousand dollars. She wore a shield-shaped helmet of black with silver edge. "First National Bank" on front in gold, broad band of ten dollar gold pieces, necklace of two and a half gold pieces. bracelets of five dollar gold pieces, girdle of twenty dollar gold pieces, shoulder straps of $2.50, $5.00 $10 and $20 gold picces, lappels of collar, $2.50, $5, $10 and $20. On front of skirt a frame of $20 gold pieces, thirty-one in number, in shape of a pyramid. Top of skirt in front, below belt, one hundred dollar bills. Helmet trimmed with new Treasury notes of various denominations. Ruching for neck, cuffs and breast trimmings made of new Treasury notes. Skirt trimmed with small fans and other devices made of currency, lithographed drafts, certificates of deposit, etc. Right side of Skirt, broad plush panel on which, in large diamond dust letters, were the words: "First National Bank." Left side same in gold buttons. Mrs. Paxson was the observed of all observers, and did credit to the coporation she represented.

J. C. Hockett & Co., dealers in drugs, medicines, paints, oils etc, were represented by Mrs. Charles Hockett, who was very handsomely attired. She wore a baby blue satin skirt trimmed in tooth brushes. White satin overdress trimmed around the neck and down the front with sponges, and shamois skin. Front paniers trimmed in 1-2 ounce vials, necklace of drachme vials tied with blue ribbon. From left shoulder was suspended a reticule of white beaded net over blue containing patent medicine, artist materials, Florida water etc. Hair worn Grecian dressed with drachme vials, White silk mitts to shoulders, with shoulder knots of blue satin ribbon. In her right hand was carried a morter. White hat of plumes and tipps, in the front a blue band bearing the letters in gilt—"Hockett".

Miss Ella Allison did justice to M. L. Tanner's harness shop in a snuff colored, lap-robe dress ornamented with sash trimmed in celluloid harness rings of assorted sizes.

Combination leather and webb belt from which dangled bridles, curry combs, stirrups, etc. She looked charming in a cow-boy hat, which, with a whip in her right hand, completed her toilet.

C. C. Kincaid's Emporium was represented by Miss Ollie Hummel. Her dress was of white India linen, profusely decorated in front with fan shaped silk handkerchiefs, and on left side with kid gloves and silk ribbons of all the colors of the rainbow ending in tassels. Banner of black with firm name there on.

Miss Carrie Clotfelter looked extremely cute as the representative of Clotfelter & Booth's clothing house. She wore a Prince Albert coat, tall silk hat, carried a nobby cane and over her shoulder hung a tourist's satchel. In her right hand she held aloft a cross surmounted by a gilt star with the words "Clothing House" in bold letters below. Miss Carrie did full justice to the occasion.

The Roller Mills, by Miss Laura Hutchinson, were well represented. Flower sacks deftly arranged composed her dress, a jaunty cap of bolting cloth graced her head and a collar of same material completed a pretty costume.

Smith & Kring's grocery was represented by Miss Florence Corser, in white dress, black sash, firm name in gilt; panel on right side decorated with rice and dried apples. Left side trimmed in cookies, crackers, etc, front in candies, chewing gum, boquet of stringbeans, necklace of candy, lower front fringed in candy.

The Santa Fe Round House was represented by Miss Orvilla Corser in a becoming white dress, black fan, red sash, with Round House in gilt letters. A fringe of wiping waste served as an ornament. A natty conductor's cap adorned her head and she carried red, white, and blue signal lanterns and signal flags.

Miss Ella Killion, the "Racket" representative, wore a white flannel skirt with dark hand painted panel in front, on which the firm's name was emblazoned in diamond dust letters. A back drapery of towels, bodice decorated with a water colored silk sash. Velvet cap, ornamented with gold pins. Carried a fan of velvet, trimmed with lace collars, ribbons, gloves and the word "Racket" in spangles.

I. N. Kesselring's shoe shop was admirably represented by his daughter, Miss Addie, who wore a head dress of morocco leather ornamented with shoe nails, thread, awls etc. Her dress was white, belt of red leather to which was attached tools belonging to the shoe trade. Boot fronts decorated bottom of dress. Midway of skirt was a broad band of red leather, on which, in large silver letters, was the word "Kesselring," and pictures of shoes in silver. Very neat.

Howard & Son was represented by Miss Lizzie Howard. She wore a white Marseilles, with vest front of lace ornamented with breastpins and different designs of rosebud dishes, beaded picture frames, etc. Necklace of gold with a tin tea strainer for a charm. Gold bracelets and oxidized silver hair ornaments. The skirt was tastefully decorated with ruffles of clothes-pins at the bottom; a red panel on the right side ornamented with a tin soap saver, coffee pot, large tin spoon, pie pans, bread toaster, egg beater, silver knives, forks, spoons, etc. A diagonal panel of red across the front of skirt with "99-cent Store" thereon in letters of diamond dust, below this, lace collars, hose, doll baby, toys etc. The left side was trimmed with napkins, 'kerchiefs, cigars, mugs and other toys.

Keller's Bakery, by Nancy Rountree, was represented as all good bakeries should be, in a pleasing and praise-worthy manner. She was dressed in black, carried a sure enough bread pan, and wore samples of Mr. Keller's excellent cakes and cookies. Her pretty white sash, with the firm name thereon in attractive letters, finished a well arranged costume.

S. A. Brown & Co's. lumber department was represented by Miss Mattie Sweet. Her dress was of dark material, probably silk, upon which appeared samples of brackets, mouldings, shingles, lath, brick, tile, paints, etc. A white sash, with the firm name in gold, completed her unique costume.

The Grain department of S. A. Brown & Co., received proper attention by Miss Ella Foster, who was arrayed in a handsome brown suit, relieved by a tasty white silk sash, upon which the firm name appeared in gold letters. Ornaments in corn, wheat, oats, castor beans, flax, millet, and a necklace and bracelets of corn, made up an attractive costume.

Smith & Kring's meat market was taken care of by Miss Julia Funk, who wore a tan colored dress, butcher's apron. Her ornaments were, a butcher knife, bologna sausage, etc. A black sash with firm name in gilt letters ornamented her shoulders. In her right hand she carried a meat saw, in her left a steel.

Miss Nettie Flowers neatly represented M. J. Flowers' coal yard. Her costume was black with low bodice and short sleeves. Side panels of white with the words "M. J. Flowers, Coal Dealer," in huge black letters. Around the bodice and sleeves was the word "Coal" in large white letters. Black sash with the word "Coal" in white letters, and a cap of black with the word "Coal" in white letters.

J. W. Taylor & Co., dealers in meats, groceries and produce, had, in Miss Emily Hiner, an able representative. She wore a white costume, with a right panel representing a "porker", and a string of crackers, cookies and dried apples on left panel. Fastened to her belt were apples, peaches, lemons, oranges, box of candies and a buckle of gum. A necklace of fancy candies, right hand bracelet of chocolate and left of gum; epaulets of spice and candies. In her right hand a butcher's knife and in the left a steel.

J. H. Butler's hardware store was represented by Miss Alice Black, who wore a handsome black dress decorated with fringe made of nails, and ornamented tastefully with toasters, graters, egg beaters, spoons, knives, forks, pans, cake cutters, skimmers and numerous other articles.

The Creamery, that newly started but important institution, was gracefully represented by Miss Cora Allison in a becoming white cheese cloth dress, ornamented with black and white letters, butter pans and paddles, and cheese. A red silk sash added much to the pleasing costume.

W. D. Wood's grocery and produce department was represented by Miss Luel Wood arrayed in white, with panel at the side of black, upon which appeared the words rice, tea, coffee and the initials of the proprietor. Decorated with candies, gum, beans, crackers, cookies, potatoes, coffee, apples, lemons, cigars and labeled with advertisements: Dwights' Soda, Pearline, Ivory Soap, etc., and carrying a banner with W. D. Wood's grocery advertisement thereon.

W. D. Wood s dry goods department was represented by Miss Weddie Wood in a costume of black Henrietta cloth decorated with satins, silks, fans, handkerchiefs, towels, thread, ribbons, napkins, hose, gloves, mitts. Hair ornamented with hair ornaments. Carried a fan with W. D. Wood's advertisement thereon.

Miss Lydia Atkisson appeared as the representative of J. H. Butler's clothing house and gents furnishing emporium, fashionably attired in a gents coat, vest, shirt and hat. Mahogany colored skirt trimmed with border of gents ties, white silk handkerchiefs, collars and cuffs were scattered over it in profusion. A costly umbrella was deftly carried, while a colored eyeglass, through which she viewed the audience, added distinction to the distinguished looking representative. A handsome blue sash graced her person, upon which was emblazoned in gold letters the name of the firm.

The grocery house of R. M. Corser was represented by Miss Ethel Corser, who wore a dress of white embroidery, with plain panels down each side with black strip across the end, ornamented with white beans, green coffee and rice. The white was trimmed in cloves, candy, onions, potatoes, tomatoes, apples, crackers, lemons and gingersnaps. The front of dress was neatly trimmed with candy and chewing gum, the back with coffee papers, soap and salmon labels; the waist with candy, cloves, cinnamon and a strip of black, from the right shoulder to left side with "R. M. Corser" printed in rice.

The Fair was represented by Miss Fronia Wright in white robe dress, blue sash, with name of firm in gilt letters. Black panel embroidered with rice and beans. Ornaments, clothes wringer, clothes sacks, wash board, pail. Necklace of candy; hat covered with cabbage and tomatoes; dress with crackers, soap, pipes, whisp brooms [illegible]

Mrs. S. A. Dodds', millinery house was ably represented by Miss Nellie Bennett, costumed as follows: White India Linen dress, adorned on the right side with a navy blue velvet panel and on the left by a red satin panel, front ornamented with bows of ribbon, sash of surah, red, cream and blue; mammoth leghorn, trimmed in tips, lace and flowers. Bird on each shoulder.

The Cherryvale REPUBLICAN was represented by Miss Rilla Sparr, who was arrayed in a handsome bluish green paper suit, with bracelets and necklace of new type wired together for the purpose. A fan to match suit upon which the word "REPUBLICAN" appeared in black letters. Pointed belt with name of paper thereon. Cap also to match.

Miss Laura Sweet represented the dry goods department of "The Fair" the first night in white lace dress over pink, green surah sash, blue silk mitts to shoulders, necklace of steel bangles, bracelets of pearl buttons, ribbons and handkerchief on shoulders. Hat made of white feather fan, trimmed in lace ties and ruching. Ornaments in the hair. Second night, wore a costume of red and green plush, black silk lace yoke and sash. Cap of old gold plush with rope silk tassels. Badge with "The Fair" printed on it in gilt letters. Carried white satin fan.

The Notion department of "The Fair" was represented by Miss Lelia Campbell who wore a dress the first night made of lace curtains with Turkish towel front and red handkerchief sleeves. Left side panel of bordered towels, decorated with combs, right side embellished with handkerchiefs napkins, hose and kid gloves. Around the waist a sash of white napkins with red border. White silk mitts, necklace of spools of silk, sleeves tied with blue and green ribbon, hat of white Turkish toweling and swans down. Second night Miss Lelia represented the notions in a dress of satin and plush; the front, peacock blue plush with side panels of canary satin, back of blue plush and orange satin, low neck waist of canary satin, with cream colored silk lace yoke, blue silk mitts to the shoulders, a bow of blue ribbon on one shoulder and one of pink on the other. pink ribbon sash, badge of light blue, with "The Fair" inscribed thereon, diagonally across front of skirt, front of waist heavily ornamented with jewelry.

Miss Elta Atherton, represented E. D. Caudry's implement and seed house. She wore a white dress with an over dress of beautiful lap robes, decorated with pictures of machinery and vegetables. Carried a whip with a banner representing the firm.

H. K. Swift's store was represented by Miss Stella Ball, who wore a plain white dress, the puffs on the sleeves of which were of bordered handkerchiefs. On the right side of skirt was a panel of black muslin on which the name of the firm appeared in letters of rice; on the opposite side was another panel of bordered handkerchiefs. The front of dress was embellished with loops and bows of pink and blue ribbon. She also wore a pretty sash of orange colored cashmere.

The costume of Miss Mattie Cobb, the representative of Asdel's Post Office Book Store, was neatly and tastefully ornamented with envelopes, marking tags, pencils, penholders, small books, tablets, holiday cards, and epaulets; the latter in the shape of crossed meerschaum pipes. Miss Cobb's hair was dressed with colored pencils and penholdes and these, together with the items mentioned above and such others as tooth brushes, fishing tackle, hand mirrors and an appropriately inscribed banner, combined to make her appearance do honor both to herself and the establishment she represented.

L. F. Cramer, the photographer, was represented by Miss Myra Cramer. She wore black satin, red sash, and had 13 fine photographs artistically arranged on her person. Her costume did her credit.

Logan Bros., had an excellent representative in Miss Amy Rice, who was becomingly costumed. Conspicous on her pale pink dress was a handsome panel of dark velvet, ornamented in unique designs of candy. A boquet of cigars, decorations of paper napkins, bracelets of nuts, headdress of paper, ear-rings of candy and a sash with the firm name in gold letters thereon completed a very pretty costume.

Mae Sweet represented Toy Bros'. carriage factory. She wore a pink dress trimmed in horse shoes and horse shoe nails. Patent leather belt, collar, cuffs and side panel on which the firm's name appeared in gold letters. A bronzed horse shoe on each shoulder set off her unique costume.

The farmers had in Miss Hattie Lowell, a very sweet and pretty representative. She wore a neatly fitting dress of white Victoria Lawn, trimmed in different kinds of grain, with necklace and bracelets of same. The farmers of Cherry Valley owe Miss Lowell many thanks for the charming manner in which she represented them.

Miss Laura Gault represented the Cherryvale Champion. She was appropriately attired in a dress constructed of newspapers, and set off by a sash with the word "Champion" thereon in zig-zag gilt letters.

G. A. Butler's jewelry store was represented by Miss Flo Sweet. She wore a black dress, blue brocaded satin sash, with firm name thereon in gilt letters, and fastened at the waist with gold lace pins. A girdle of watches and napkin rings, a panel of knives and forks on the right side. Gold chains and rings draped artistically across the front of skirt on a background of blue plush. Epaulets of teaspoons, sugar shells, and mustard spoons, and reveres of gold chains on the front of the bodice. Gold necklace, chains, rings, and bracelets. Miss Flo Sweet looked love- [illegible]

Mrs. J. C. Adams' dressmaking establishment was represented by Miss Emma Hill, who wore a dress of black and pink sateen, black lace and pink ribbon. Pink silk Toque with pink tips. Colored figures cut out and sewed together to form panel. Model tied with pink ribbon across left shoulder.

Wells Fargo Express was represented by Miss L. May Adams. Dress of blue and cream sateen, cream lace and cream ribbons. Fargo messenger cap and sack of small packages, money envelopes, tied on strap of sack which hung over the left shoulder and under right arm. Very neatly and appropriately attired.

A. J. Pitzer's drug, wall-paper and jewelry store was represented by Miss Kate Orr, dressed in oriental splendor with waist composed of blue tissue paper, with vest of crimson flock; flowing sleeves trimmed with sponges. The front breadth of the skirt was blue, gilt and crimson striped wall-paper, trimmed at the bottom with a pointed piece of crimson flock and in each point was placed curtain rings of steel and bronze. The side gores were of the crimson flock beautifully lettered in gilt. The back was of dark material trimmed around the bottom with a deep border of gilt, blue and crimson wall-paper. Over the back hung a sash and loops of blue tissue paper. She also wore a Fountleroy collar of Conory tissue; Tam O'Shanter cap, crown of blue tissue, band of flock elaborately trimmed in capsule beads and white felt corn plasters. For jewelry she wore a heavy gold necklace with a diamond cross, watches, pins, bracelets, rings and epaulets of pocket books and chains.

Frank Yeager's barber shop was represented by Miss Nettie Pearson who was becomingly dressed in red, white and blue, with red, white and blue cap and sash. A panel of razors adorned one side of dress. She carried a banner of blue plush with the name of the proprietor inscribed thereon.

1887.

E. B. Wood's handsome shoe emporium was ably represented by his daughter, Miss Effie, who wore a white embroidered mull dress with a black silk bodice trimmed with button hooks, and a girdle of button hooks on each end of which was an infant's shoe. Necklace and bracelets of shoe buttons and an infant's shoe on each shoulder. The hair was ornamented with button hooks uniquely arranged. A panel of shoes on one side of dress, and in front a panel with the proprietor's name thereon in shoe buttons.

Miss Bertha Morning represented Morning Bros., dealers in furniture. She wore a white dress, golden brown plush sash fringed with gilt curtain rings. Plate of furniture cuts on one side and a gilt ornamented paper pocket on the other side. Carried a handsome gilt tipped curtain pole covered with blue plush.

Miss Frank Reed, who represented "Edmondson, The Tailor" wore a suit of dark and white. On the front of dark skirt in letters of gold was the name "Edmondson The Tailor." On each side of skirt was drawn in gold, a coat, and around the edge of skirt was a border of his advertising cards. The waist, fashioned after the Grecian Models, was of dark and white,—across the white front was the name "Edmondson." She carried a pair of shears in her hand.

Miss Eva Quick represented telegraphy dressed in white Indian linen, with a telegraph wire girdle, a telegraph instrument on each end of girdle, also one on each shoulder. Head adorned with a gilt crown.

The Hardware house of H. T. Wright & Son was represented by Mrs. C. O. Wright, who wore a red dress, low neck and short sleeves, trimmed with cream lace, with gloves to match. Necklace of padlocks and chains, shoulders draped with brass chains and small nickel padlocks, epaulets of tin cups. Girdle and sash of chains, decorated with pocket scissors and silver plated forks—revolver protruding from belt. Skirt trimmed with pepper boxes, nutmeg graters, pattie pans, keys, rattle boxes, match safes, etc. Bracelets of padlocks and chain. Carried tin pan the inscription on which was "Wright & Son." Mrs. Wright's costume attracted general attention from the fact that it was an ample and faithful exhibit of the business she represented.

Prewitt & Co's., grocery department was represented by Miss Lottie Prewitt, clad in a wine colored silk dress, low neck and short sleeves; bodice trimmed with cream lace, skirt with black velvet panels. A band of crackers around lower edge of skirt, relieved by a border of clothes pins. On the right side panel were the words "Coffee," "Rice," and "Sugar," made of each article. On the left side panel were oranges, candy, nuts, apples and potatoes. A necklace of eggs graced the ensemble. The front of dress was artistically decorated with toilet soap and dried apples, and from the right shoulder hung packages of smoking tobacco, and from the left, packages of bird seed. Bracelets of dried apples. A crown, decorated with cigars, on which was the name "Prewitt," adorned her head. Hair trimmed with flowers and cabbage leaves.

A Trades Carnival without young Zeke Howard would be a tame affair indeed. Young Zeke, not to be outdone by the young ladies, donned a becoming petticoat attire, covered his face and hands with burnt cork, and appeared as the representative of Uncle Tommy Teel, the colored gentleman who has a corner on the slop trade in this city. Zeke was rigged for business, having fastened a nail keg to a toy wagon, which he drew behind him in his march about the stage. His appearance was always the signal for uproarious applause. Zeke you made a hit.

AUTOMOBILE KILLS CHILD

Little Ralph, 4-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. HOWARD, was almost instantly killed at the family home in this city at 6 o´clock Saturday evening.

An older brother was taking the automobile out of the garage when the child ran in and in trying to climb on the running board fell and a front wheel of the heavy car passed over his body crushing his life out.

No blame is in any way attached to the driver. He did not see his little brother nor was he aware that he was anywhere near the car.

The child was carried into the house and died in a few minutes.

Ralph Seton HOWARD, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. HOWARD was born 13 June 1913, died Saturday afternnon 2 June 1917. Thus on the coming 13th of this month, he would have been 4 years of age. The father and mother, 3 boys and 3 girls, together with the grandparents and uncle mourn the early death of their little one.

The ~~symptany~~ SYMPATHY of all go out to them in their sad ~~breavement~~. bereavement x

The little body was laid at rest in Woodlawn cemetery of ~~[DeRidder, Louisiana]~~ at 3 o´clock Monday afternoon, following funeral services at the Presbyterian church conducted by the pastor, Rev. Lloyd CUNNINGHAM.

OBITUARY of Mrs. Harry D. (Neletta) HOWARD

MRS. NELETTA HOWARD, 95, DIES FRIDAY

Mrs. Harry D. (Neletta) HOWARD, former postmistress and business woman of Manville and 1 of that town´s most loved citizens, died in a Cheyenne Hospital Friday 17 March at the age of 95.

She had been amazingly alert and active until less than 4 years ago when she fell in her home and broke a hip. But even then, she bounced back only to break the other hip in 1968. Again she healed and returned to active life until in February of this year she suffered a stroke which hospitalized her first here and later at Cheyenne. Since 3 March she has failed rapidly.

It was in the spring of 1918 that the family moved to the booming town of Manville where Mr. HOWARD established a jewelry business and built the family home in which she has resided since. On 1 March 1924 Mrs. HOWARD was appointed postmistress and held this position until her retirement 1 March 1948. During these years she also owned and operated a variety store which she continued to operate until the winter of 1964.

Mr. and Mrs. HOWARD observed their 62nd wedding anniversary in 1963 and he died in August 1964.

Besides her post office duties and business, she was best known for her many years of service to the Manville Church, first under the Methodist denomination and after at the Missionary Alliance Church in the varying capacities, sometimes as Sunday school teacher, at times as superintendent, and at other times as both, or again as church treasurer or clerk, she served until past her 90th birthday. And as her daughter, Mrs. A. F. DE CASTRO says, quoting a biblical phrase, "in quietness and confidence was her strength." She was baptized in the Christian Disciple Church at the age of 14. She was born in Cleveland, Ohio 14 December 1874, the daughter of the physician Dr. Jonathan and Emma (GUILLET) PETTET. The family moved to Englewood, Illinois in 1882 where she grew to womanhood and gained an education in the public schools. She graduated from the University of Chicago in 1898 and taught school in a Chicago suburb for 2 years. In 1900 she came west to Tobias, Nebraska to teach and there met Mr. HOWARD whom she married 18 September 1901, in the family home at Englewood, Illinois.

Mr. HOWARD had previously been to Manville where he had a sister, Mrs. E. B. BAUGHN, and he and his new wife established their first home in Lusk where his primary occupation was as a tinsmith in the construction then taking place here. In 1904 the family returned to Tobias for a year and then moved to Fairfield, Nebraska, where, meanwhile, Mr. HOWARD had taken up the trade of watchmaker. In the summer of 1910, the family, which by now consisted of 4 children, moved to Atkinson, Nebraska where Mr. HOWARD established a jewelry store. The family lived here until

Sidney J. STEELE then comments on his advanced age, his inability to answer my questions to him (in a previous letter) and commends to me the subjoined article by Emma L. ROBINSON who was alive in 1836 and wrote the article and he believed it was authentic as she lived in Ashbel´s old homestead until she grew up and he believed knew well the family history. I shall copy all of her article but as she gave 1st our Ashbel´s predecessors then broke into a column of description of the homestead and again returned to Ashbel´s descendants, I shall give all the genealogical data in our 1st pages and the homestead description in a 2nd part. Part I starts thus:

INTIMATE STORY OF ASHBEL STEELE AND HIS FAMILY - PART I

Mrs. Emma L. ROBINSON, author of this article, was a granddaughter of Ashbel STEELE, first settler here. Her mother was Clara Harriet STEELE who married Elijah BROWN, member of a pioneer family in Oak Park. Mrs. ROBINSON is probably the only living person who lived in the home of Ashbel STEELE and knew him intimately. Her father died when she was small and she and her mother went to live at the STEELE home, where she grew to womanhood. The intimate story she has written here is most illuminating.

By Emma L. ROBINSON

That the STEELES were born pioneers needs but a glance back over the centuries for confirmation. The first to adventure to the new world were George and John STEELE, born in Essex, England. They were the sons of William STEELE, English Baron, and Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. With a grant of land from the English crown, they arrived in 1631, settling 1st in Cambridge, Massachusetts. A few years later, George moved to Hartford, Connecticut where he is listed as a proprietor of lands in 1639.

From there they went to Derby, Connecticut near which they built a home, shops and a mill on STEELE´S Creek. It was in this home that our Ashbel was born in 1794. Ashbel STEELE´S grandfather was Captain Ashbel BRADFORD STEELE. His wife was Eunice THOMPSON, sister of Colonel THOMPSON, Commander of George WASHINGTON´S bodyguard and every male member of the STEELE family old enough to carry a gun fought for Liberty in the Revolutionary War. When Ashbel grew to manhood, he was associated with his father in the milling and building industry.

(Note by B.W.A.: Mrs. ROBINSON may not have known this, but about 1821 or 1822, Ashbel STEELE married Mary (or Martha) CLARK or CLARKE of Syracuse, New York (Onondaga) [her name given as Cecelia Frances in will of her father, Frederick CLARKE] and about 1823 their only child, Julius Augustus STEELE, our grandfather, was born. In the summer of 1910, the family, which by now consisted of 4 children, moved to Atkinson, Nebraska where Mr. HOWARD established a jewelry store. The family lived here until moving back to Wyoming at Manville. While living at Atkinson, Mrs. HOWARD served on the school board and throughout her life she maintained a keen interest in community and public affairs and politics.

Mrs. HOWARD was a member of Niobrara Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star and was a past worthy matron of Mariposa Chapter of Manville before it was absorbed into the Niobrara Chapter.

Surviving are 2 sons, Robert of Redlands, California and Ross of Cheyenne; 3 daughters, Mrs. A. F. (Edna) DE CASTRO of Lusk; Mrs. Emma RICHARDSON of Manville, and Mrs. Martin (Emma) KEENAN of Pine Bluffs, Wyoming; 13 grandchildren and 11 geat-grandchildren.

Besides her husband, her father and mother, 1 sister, 4 brothers and 2 sons died previously.

Funeral services were held at the Manville Community Alliance Church at 2:00 PM Monday with the Rev. Richard KORNS officiating. Mrs. KORNS was organist and accompanied Mrs. G. L. PFEIFER and Mrs. Edna FULLERTON singing "Asleep in Jesus" and "It Is Well With My Soul."

Mrs. Neletta Howard, 95, Dies Friday

Mrs. Harry D. (Neletta) Howard, former postmistress and business woman of Manville and one of that town's most loved citizens, died in a Cheyenne Hospital Friday, March 27, at the age of 95.

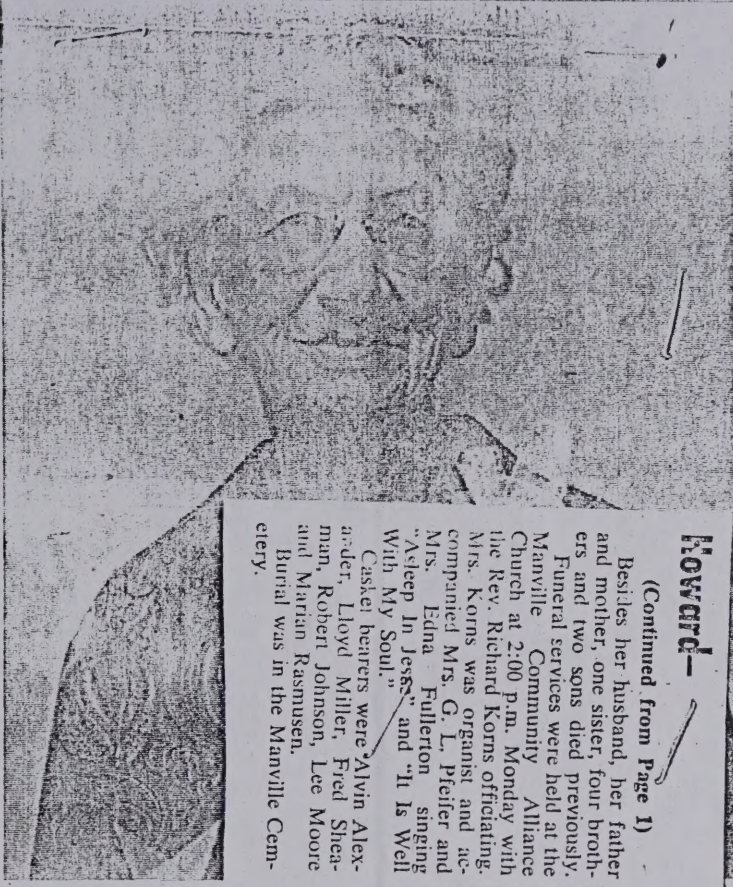
She had been amazingly alert and active until less than four years ago when she fell in her home and broke a hip. But even then she bounced back only to break the other hip in 1968. Again she healed and returned to active life until in February of this year she suffered a stroke which hospitalized her first here and later at Cheyenne. Since March 3 she has failed rapidly.

It was in the spring of 1918 that the family moved to the booming town of Manville where Mr. Howard established a jewelry business and built the family home in which she has resided since. On March 1, 1924, Mrs. Howard was appointed postmistress and held this position until her retirement March 1, 1948. During these years she also owned and operated a variety store which she continued to operate until the winter of 1964.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard observed their 62nd wedding anniversary in 1963, and he died in August 1964.

Besides her postoffice duties and business, she was best known for her many years of service to the Manville Church, first under the Methodist denomination and later as the Missionary Alliance Church. In the varying capacities sometimes as Sunday School teacher, at times as superintendent, and at other times as both, or again as church treasurer or clerk she served until past her ninetieth birthday. And as her daughter, Mrs. A. F. DeCastro says, quoting a biblical phrase, "in quietness and confidence was her strength." She was baptized in the Christian (Disciples) Church at the age of 14.

She was born in Cleveland, Ohio, December 14, 1874, the daughter of the physician Dr. Jonathan and Emma ~~Guillet~~ Pettet. The family moved to Englewood, Ill., in 1882 where she grew to womanhood and gained an education in the public schools. She graduated from the University of Chicago in 1898 and taught school in a Chicago suburb for two years. In 1900 she came west to Tobias, Neb., to teach and there met Mr. Howard whom she married September 18, 1901, in the family home at Englewood, Ill.



MRS. HOWARD ON HER 92nd BIRTHDAY

Mr. Howard had previously been to Manville where he had a sister, Mrs. E. B. Baughn, and he and his new wife established their first home in Lusk where his primary occupation was as a tinsmith in the construction then taking place here. In 1904 the family returned to Tobias for a year and then moved to Fairfield, Neb., where, meanwhile, Mr. Howard had taken up the trade of watchmaker. In the summer of 1910, the family, which by now consisted of four children, moved to Atkinson, Neb., where Mr. Howard established a jewelry store. The family lived here until moving back to Wyoming at Manville. While living at Atkinson Mrs. Howard served on the school board, and throughout her life she maintained a keen interest in community and public affairs and politics.

Mrs. Howard was a member of Niobrara Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star and was a past worthy matron of Mariposa Chapter of Manville before it was absorbed into the Niobrara Chapter.

Surviving are two sons, Robert of Redlands, Calif., and Ross of Cheyenne; three daughters, Mrs. A. F. (Edna) Decastro of Lusk; Mrs. Emma Richardson of Manville, and Mrs. Murrin (Erma) Keenan of Pine Bluffs, Wyo.; 13 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Eckard Toy.
Tillamook, Ore.

Dear Friend – I was very happy to get your letter. I was very fond of the Toy family. I don't suppose Eckard remembers me very well, he being Laura and Claire's "little brother" when the girls were active with my sisters and me in Cherryvale, Kas., B. Y. P. U. Laura and Ralph were married the same year I was married. When Laura and Ralph were married the older generation was about gone. I understand that Nelson Toy was the youngest son of a big family of 12 children. I believe I told you about the old folks always talking about the Howards, the Sweets and Toys, each family having 12 children and all ~~living~~ in Chenoa. In checking dates and ages the Toys were much younger as my grandmother, Samira Sweet, was 26 years older than her brother Solon who married Elizabeth Toy.

I am sending a rundown on the Sweet ancestors down to Peleg Sweet and Abigail Bardeen. CORR Then I send their twelve children and to whom they were married, etc. I am hoping I have been correct in copying them as nowadays my typing ability is not very good and my eyes do not track well.

I did not copy any of the Howard data as I believe Brad Howard's marriage to Rebecca Toy = was a sister of Nelson (sister of Grandpa Toy) the only one (until, of course Ralph and Laura.)

MAUD SWEET

I am sending a mimeographed copy of an article by Mrs. E. D. Sweet, wife of Edgar Delos Sweet, son of Solon Sweet and Elizabeth Toy. F.W

I am afraid I don't have anything much of help for genealogy purposes for the Toys.

Much of the material I have ^for^ been furnished me by Mrs. Trella Hall, box 227, Larned, Kas., a great-granddaughter of a brother of my grandfather Howard but she has been a close cousin to me in the way of family history. She has gone into research in a big way. (She is a D.A.R. - I never bothered about it.)

Your letter sounds like you have a very interesting family.

I will close and hope I have had something to interest you. (A lady just phoned she was coming by to take my mail to box for which I am very thankful.

Heaps of love,
Mabel (Howard) Selby.

Peleg Sweet

Emma Holmes, daughter of D. D. Holmes, lent the compiler this clipping to Dad: .

July 3, 1808, Peleg Sweet was married to Abigail Bardeen. Two years after their marriage - their eldest daughter and child, La Myra, was born in Cazenovia, N. Y.

In 1812 Peleg spent several months in Ohio. He then returned to his family and told them that he was going West. In February, 1812, his second daughter, Mary, was born in Burlington, N. Y., and sometime that year he and his family started for Ohio.

From the dates of his stay in Ohio and when he landed in Illinois, the other two daughters; Tempie and Elizabeth must have been born in Ohio - but near what town the descendants of these two daughters don't seem to know.

By the dates of the births of these two girls they must have been born sometime somewhere from the time they left New York until they landed in Illinois, for we find by the records that Isaac was the first child of Peleg and Abigail (Bardeen) Sweet to be born in Illinois.

Dr. John Taylor contributed a very interesting story about the scar o Grandmother Sweet's face that was told to him by his Mother. — As it fits in the life history so well at this place I will relate it as he wrote it to me. "Peleg and wife and family were on their way to Illinois from Ohio. The roads were awful as new roads through timber generally were. Paley Abbott

Emma Holmes, daughter of D.D. Holmes, lent the compiler this clipping to Dad.

July 3, 1808, Paley Abbott was married to Abigail Baldwin. Two years after their marriage their eldest daughter and child, [illegible], was born in Cazenovia, N.Y.

In 1810 Paley spent several months in Ohio. He then returned to his family and told them that he was going West. In February 1811, his second daughter, Mary, was born in Burlington, N.Y., and sometime that year he and his family started for Ohio.

From the date of his stay in Ohio and when he landed in Illinois, the other two daughters, Sarah and Elizabeth must have been born in Ohio, but since asked from the descendants of these two daughters dont seem to know.

By the dates of the births of these two girls they must have been sometime en-route from the time they left New York until they landed in Illinois, for we find by the records that [illegible] was the first child of Paley and Abigail (Baldwin) Abbott to be born in Illinois.

Dr. John Taylor contributed a very interesting story about the route Grandmother Abbott gave that was told to him by his mother.

We cut into the life history and read at this place and relate it as he wrote it to me. "Paley and wife and family came this way to Illinois from Ohio. The roads were as good as new roads through timber generally were. Grandmother Abbott was sitting on the driver's seat holding baby Elizabeth when the front wheel either

Whichever it was, it threw her out and she fell with her head between the front wheel and the hind wheel, and before Grandfather could stop the team the hind wheel had run up on her head. As the wagon was heavily loaded he did not dare to drive on over her head, so he seized the hub or spokes of the hind wheel and lifted the wagon and pushed her head away with his foot and then let the wheel down.

He thought at first she was dead, but on examination found she was not, though badly hurt. He washed the wound as well as he could, sewing up the lacerated parts with a common sewing needle and black linen thread. Then putting her on a blanket she was carried to a cabin not far away, and there they all stayed until Grandmother was able to travel again. Elizabeth was so bundled up that she was not dangerously hurt by the fall."

Just where the accident occurred is not known for sure but Dr. Taylor states he thought it was somewhere near Hamilton, Ohio. Grandfather must have been a strong man to lift such a load and get her head out of the way all alone.

He belonged to the Masonic Order, and the brothers about there hearing of his troubles helped him all they could, not only with food but with money which was a scarce article in those good old days. Dr. Taylor also stated his mother told him Grandfather returned the money in time, but it took years to pay it all back. That he did, tells me more than anything that he was a men

There is a picture of Grandmother Sweet in the Dunham family that shows the scar very plainly that was caused by the accident.

Some time after this they journeyed on to Illinois, it took three months to make the trip.

In the year 1817 Peleg and family landed in Illinois. This was the year Illinois became a state and the port of entry from the East was Shawneetown, Ill.

In some old papers we found a slip of paper and on this paper was written "Peleg Sweet & Abigail his wife came down the Ohio river and landed at Shawneetown, October, 1817."

Here they suffered many hardships but were sturdy pioneers through it all. Their shelter was a log hut, floorless and doorless. Their food was hominy and wild game.

In a clipping written up about some of the early settlers of Illinois we read Peleg was around this locality three years and as the state became more settled and the Indians were driven farther North Peleg and some others pushed on to Diamond Grove, Morgan County, southeast of Jacksonville, Ill. and settled there.

We are told by Mrs. E. G. Sweet that Grandmother Sweet told her she became so homesick to see some of her people that Grandfather took her back to New York on a visit and while there Peleg ~~inducted~~ induced his father, Jonathan Sweet, and others to come to Illinois with him when he returned which they did. This was about 1822. His brother Joel came ten years later.

We find in an early history of Jacksonville, Ill., written by Charles M. Fames (History Morgan & Classic Jacksonville) that in 1823 a society called the Morganian Society was formed in Morgan County for the purpose of opposing the calling of a constitutional convention which the Legislature had authorized for the well-known object of providing for a permanent establishment of slavory in the state. That society numbered 100 of which Peleg, Robert and Joseph Sweet's names were among the 100 names.

In talking with an old settler of Morgan County who knew the family, the compilor of this history was told that "Peleg was always considered a scrapper"; standing up for what was considered the best for the city or country he was living in.

We are also told in a writing by Edmund Sweet (Joel Sweet's son) that Peleg was a captain of a company of Regulators who warred against thieves.

In 1843 he traded his tract of land in Woodford County and in 1846 he with his family now numbering 12 members, four sons and eight daughters, moved to Woodford County near the town on Uniontown and afterwards named Washburn.

In the early history of Woodford County we find Peleg Sweet was mentioned as an enterprising man of the old town of Washburn who came from New York and resided first in Morgan County and came to Washburn in 1846 where he took an active part in the building up of the town."

We read also in the early histories of the Baptist churches of Illinois and Woodford County that he and his brother Joel were founders of the Washburn Baptist church. All of Peleg's family were members of this church his children and grandchildren numbering 30 members of a membership of 75.

Mrs. E. G. Sweet says "He gave the land for the Baptist church and school house to be built on at this time."

She also states that as each child married he gave all but Polly Carson and Ann Scroggen Owen (His two daughters) 80 acres for a home. Afterwards Ann Scroggin sold her farm to the brothers. Her first husband was Rev. Scroggin and he did not care to farm. (He was a Baptist, too.) Grandfather kept 80 acres for the home and that was Enoch Sweet's (his youngest ~~boy~~ boy) after his death. This locality was known as Stringtown. The fartherest family residing four miles from the homestead.

Note:

Evidently there is a bit of mix-up in the above about the giving out of 80-acre parcels of land to Aunt Polly Carson and Aunt Ann Scroggin I wonder if it doesn't mean they received their land at a time other than at their marriage. Evidently, at least, Aunt Ann got hers.

Since this State Road was the most direct and best route from Springfield to Chicago, 137 years ago, Mr. Maxwell probably did a good business with his investment. He laid out a town to be called "Auburn" but the time was not yet ripe. So it was that even though the builders of the State Road were unaware of it, they were at the same time laying the first corner stone of the settlement that was, 20 years later, to become Washburn.

William Maxwell's father-in-law, Henry D. Palmer, was a county line property owner. In 1846 Mr. Palmer donated some land that a school house might be built and the families living on either side of the county line road saw to it that the school house was built. Thus a second firm and enduring foundation stone was adjoined to the first; and because this little settlement had sprung up on the line adjoining Marshall and Woodford counties, they called it Uniontown.

The laying of the third corner stone can perhaps be attributed to Peleg Sweet who came here in 1847. In Jacksonville, Illinois he became acquainted with a Christian minister and the men became good friends. Through this minister, Peleg worked out a trade by which he could come to Cazenovia Township, Woodford County. It must have been a worthwhile trade, because once here, he bought 800 acres of land along Parkside Drive.

He divided this land into 80-acre sections and put one of his ten children on each section, with the exception of the youngest, who in due time fell heir to the home place which Peleg built. The houses erected by the children of Sweet were all similar in construction, and since they were stringing out from east to west, this strip became known as "Stringtown." Previous to this time, there were only three houses in the northwest quarter of Section One.

The final step came in 1851. Hiram Echols acquired the necessary land and laid out the original town. This comprised 12 blocks, eight of them in Woodford County and four of them in Marshall.

At the suggestion of Alonson Howard, the town was named Washburn. Joe Parker was the first to build a house in the newly-named town. A second house, a log cabin, was built by Printer Burgess Smith. Dr. Thomas was the first to buy a lot and some time later he built a drug store on it. This was a two-story building with a Masonic lodge room on the second floor. This was later removed to Jefferson Street and used by M. S. Fulton as a store. Today it stands as a residence on West Magnolia Street.

These years were filled with activity. A building boom was on and in 1852 Jesse Hammers built the first store for his brother. He was succeeded by Americus Pogue, who was succeeded by Cushing and Jenkins about 1853.

The post office was established in 1854 in Dr. Thomas' office. The first postmaster was the William Maxwell who figured so much in the early history of the town.

A brief survey shows that by 1855 Washburn had one store, one church (Baptist), one minister, and one doctor. Eggs were selling at 3¢ per dozen, butter was from 5¢ to 10¢ per pound, and corn sold for 15¢ per bushel.

A shoe shop was opened in 1856 and a second store building was built by a Mr. Ackey. J. G. Haines ran a harness shop and in 1857, A. M. Harper opened a shop. The next year August Iunker built a mill and John L. Black, the grandfather of Glen W. Black, was operating the Union Hotel.

In 1864 the Bliss Sisters opened their millinery store. Three years later, August Iunker built a steam flour mill.

The town later had another hotel, operated by Mr. and Mrs. John Carrithers. It is now the Harry Snyder home.

Benjamin Monroe operated a saloon, and Clay Little conducted a grocery store, with Jonathan Haines as the clerk. Mr. Haines later built the residence now occupied by Elmer E. Winkler.

In a lean-to on the south side of the Little store building, George C. Butler conducted a tin shop, while the family had living quarters in the rear. Between 1864-1867 Phillip Drennen and Charles McCulloch, the great uncle of Mrs. C. E. Spang-

The JONATHAN SWEET and TEMPERANCE HOLDRIGE Family
(1761-1837) (1768-1842)

Jonathan Sweet was born in West Greenwich, Rhode Island on April 29, 1761. His parents were Francis Sweet and Sarah Harrington. In 1782 Jonathan Sweet married Temperance Holdridge, the daughter of Thomas and Anna Holdridge. Temperance had been born on March 12, 1768, so she was 14 at the time of her marriage. They were marrried in Hancock, Massachusetts.

d 1840

I believe that Jonathan and Temperance had twelve or more children. They were:

	born
girl	before 1790
girl	1784-1790
Peleg	May 3, 1786
Robert	1785-1790
Joel	1794-1800
boy	1790-1800
boy	1795-1800
girl	1794-1800
girl	1795-1800
Sarah	1802
boy	1800-1810
Frances	1808-1810

Peleg and Sarah are the only ones whose names I am sure of, for the others I am sure of the sex and age but not the name.

In 1790 Jonathan's family was living in Cambrige, New York near his parents. In 1800 both families had moved to Burlington. In 1810 Jonathan's family is listed on the census for Dutchess County. The census taker wrote down the livestock owned by each family, and whether or not they had a loom or owned a mill. Jonathan had nine horses, sixteen head of cattle, and fifty sheep. He also owned a fulling mill. By 1820 the family was back in Burlington.

Shortly after this Jonathan and Temperance moved west. By this time they were in their late fifties or sixties. They went with their son Peleg, his wife, and four daughters. I think that Sarah also went with them, and possibly some of their other children. Robert, Joel, and Francis all lived near their parents in Morgan County. Jonathan and Temperance stopped for a short while in Ohio, and then went to Morgan County, Illinois.

Peleg married Abigail Bardeen in Burlington. They had four daughters in New York and eight more children in Illinois.

Robert had at least seven children.. Joel had at least six.

Sarah married Eliakim Howard. They had two children but they both died in childhood. Three of Eliakim's brothers married Peleg's daughters. ✓

STEPHEN

Francis' wife was named Ann. They had at least eleven children.

Jonathan died in Morgan County, December 20, 1837, age 76. Temperance died there November 1, 1842, age 74.

HAD BEEN ILL 2 WEEKS;

SUFFERED APOPLEXY ATTACK IS IMMEDIATE CAUSE

17 February 1928 -- Mrs. Carrie M. SWIFT, 61, died at her home, 308 Hamilton Avenue at 10:15 o´clock Friday morning. Death was caused by apoplexy. She had been ill for the past 2 weeks. Only since 4 o´clock Friday morning had her condition been serious, however.

Mrs. SWIFT was born at Washburn, Illinois 18 August 1866, the oldest child of William Sylvester and Anna Elizabeth HOWARD. She married Henry K. SWIFT at Anthony, Kansas 6 March 1890.

She and her husband had moved to Danville in 1892. Her husband, a rural mail carrier, died in 1920. He was preceded in death only 3 months by their only son, Dean. One daughter, Mrs. Ruby (SWIFT) MEADE, at home, survives.

Mrs. SWIFT was a member of the First Baptist Church. The body was removed to the Page Memorial Funeral HOme and Saturday will be taken back to the residence. The funeral will be held Monday, the time and place to be announced later.

Automobile Kills Child.

Little Ralph, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Howard, was almost instantly killed at the family home in this city at 6 o'clock Saturday evening.

An older brother was taking the automobile out of the garage when the child ran in and in trying to climb on the running board fell and a front wheel of the heavy car passed over his body crushing his life out.

No blame is in any way attached to the driver. He did not see his little brother, nor was he aware that he was anywhere near the car.

The child was carried into the house and died in a few minutes.

Ralph Seton Howard, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Howard was born June 13, 1913, died Saturday afternoon June 2, 1917. Thus on the coming 13th of this month he would have been four years of age. The father and mother, three boys and three girls, together with the grand parents and uncle mourn the early death of their little one.

The sympathy of all go out to them in their sad bereavement.

The litle body was laid at rest in Woodlawn cemetery at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, following funeral services at the Presbyterian church conducted by the pastor, Rev. Lloyd Cunningham.
